(2) The words and expressions used in these rules which are not defined therein, but are defined in the Code, shall have their respective meaning as assigned to them in the Code.

3. Manner and conditions of making the provisions of Chapter III or Chapter IV inapplicable to an establishment.— (1) The employer of an establishment to which the provisions of Chapter III or Chapter IV have been made applicable under sub-section (5) or sub-section (7) of section 1 of the Code, may apply electronically on the specified portal to the Central Provident Fund Commissioner or the Director General, as the case may be, for making such provisions inapplicable to the establishments, subject to the condition that the employer and the majority of the employees of that establishment agree in writing to such request.

(2) The Central Provident Fund Commissioner or the Director General, as the case may be, shall decide the application under sub-section (5) or sub-section (7) of section 1 of the Code within a period of sixty days from the date of receipt of the application:

Provided that if no decision is taken by the Central Provident Fund Commissioner or the Director General, as the case may be, within the period of sixty days from the date on which the application is made, the permission under sub-section (5) or sub-section (7) of section 1 of the Code, as the case may be, shall be deemed to have been granted with effect from the date of completion of such sixty days:

Provided further that no such application shall be entertained if the provisions of Chapter III or Chapter IV have become applicable, in terms of sub-section (4) of section 1 of the Code, to the establishment at any time subsequent to the notification under sub-section (5) or sub-section (7) of section 1 of the Code, as the case may be:

Provided also that no such application shall be made by the employer of the establishment before five years of such coverage under the provisions of Chapter III or Chapter IV, as the case may be:

Provided also that no such application shall be entertained unless the employer has furnished all returns, paid all dues under the Code and submitted a self-certification to that effect along with the application.

4. Income of dependent parents of employee.—For the purposes of sub-clause (e) of clause (33) of section 2 of the Code, the income from all sources, for the purposes of Chapter IV of the Code shall not exceed fourteen thousand rupees in a month or such amount as may be specified by notification.

5. Registration of establishments and cancellation thereof.—(1)(a) Every employer seeking registration for an establishment not already registered shall apply electronically in Form-I of the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions (Central) Rules, 2026, on the Shram Suvidha Portal by furnishing details of the establishment and uploading documents related to registration of the establishment including proof of identity and address of the employers, as specified in the Form.

Explanation.— For the purposes of this sub-rule, Form-I under the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions (Central) Rules, 2026 shall be the common form for registration under these rules.

(b) The Form shall be signed digitally or in such other manner as may be required on the portal.

(c) The applicant shall be responsible for the veracity of all information submitted in the application.

(d) The Permanent Account Number (PAN) of the establishment allotted under Income Tax 2025 (30 of 2025) or any other unique number allotted to the establishment under any other law for the time being in force or any other particular furnished in the form, may be verified online.

(e) The certificate of registration shall be issued in Form-III of the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions (Central) Rules, 2026 electronically, if the application is complete in all respects but not later than seven days from the date of submission of complete application, failing which such establishment shall be deemed to have been registered and the certificate of registration shall be auto-generated:

Provided that in exceptional circumstances, the Central Government may, by notification and for such period as may be specified therein, dispense with the requirement of electronic registration in respect of establishment or class of establishments, for the whole or any part of India, and submission of application in the Form-I of the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions (Central) Rules, 2026 so provided, may be allowed.

(2) The authorised officer under the Code shall direct the employer who fails to comply with the requirements of sub-rule (1) to do so within the time stated therein and such employer shall thereupon comply with the instructions issued by that officer in this behalf.

(3) The employer in respect of an establishment already registered under any other central labour law for the time being in force shall, update the particulars of the employer or establishment on the Shram Suvidha Portal within such period as prescribed under the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020.

(4) Any registration obtained by furnishing wrong information shall be liable to cancellation after the establishment has been given an opportunity to show cause within a period of thirty days from the date on which the notice is served on the concerned employer, electronically or otherwise, as to why the certificate of registration should not be cancelled.

(5) The employer shall quote the registration number on all documents prepared or submitted by him in connection with the Code or the schemes or the rules or the regulations, as the case may be, and in all correspondence with the offices concerned.

(6) Any change in the particulars furnished in the Form-I of the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions (Central) Rules, 2026 submitted on the specified portal shall be updated by the employer within thirty days of such change.

(7) The employer of an establishment to which the provisions of the Code apply and whose business activities are in the process of closure, may apply for cancellation of registration in the specified form online on the Shram Suvidha Portal after furnishing complete details and the status of the contribution and other dues payable under the Code.

(8) The application for cancellation of registration shall be allowed after the particulars in the application are verified in such manner as may be specified by the Central Government:

Provided that no such application for cancellation of registration shall be entertained unless the employer has furnished all returns, paid all dues under the Code and submitted a self-certification to that effect along with the application:

Provided further that such application for cancellation shall be decided within a period of ninety days from the date of receipt of the application complete in all respects.

(9) A copy of the certificate of registration shall be displayed at the conspicuous places in the premises where the work is being carried out.

(3) (a) The National Social Security Board, for discharging its functions as assigned to it, under sub-section (7) of section 6, may constitute a committee to deliberate and recommend on the specific issues as may be assigned to such committee;

(b) Such committee may co-opt members from such Board or outside, as the case may be, from the fields of the experts, on which the committee is required to deliberate.

(4) (a) The Central Government shall initiate the process for reconstitution of the National Social Security Board, prior to six months of expiry of the term of the Board.

(b) If the new Board is not re-constituted after completion of the term of the National Social Security Board, such arrangements may be made for discharging the functions of the Board as may be decided by the Central Government for the period till the new Board is constituted, through a notification.

(c) Consequent upon institution of arrangement referred to in clause (b), all actions taken shall have the same effect as if it has been carried out by the Board itself.

(5) (a) A member of the National Social Security Board, not being an ex officio member, may resign by a letter in writing addressed to the Central Government.

(b) The seat of such a member shall fall vacant from the date on which his resignation is accepted or on the expiry of thirty days from the date of receipt of intimation of resignation, whichever is earlier.

(c) The power to accept the resignation of such a member shall vest with the Central Government.

(6) If such a member changes his address, he shall notify his new address to the Member-Secretary of the Board who shall thereupon enter his new address in the official records:

Provided that if a member fails to notify his new address, the address in the official records shall for all purposes be deemed to be the member's correct address.

(7) When a vacancy occurs or is likely to occur in the membership of the National Social Security Board, Member-Secretary of the Board shall submit a report to the Central Government and on receipt of such report, the Central Government may, by notification, nominate a person to fill the vacancy in the manner specified under sub-rules (1) and (2) of rule 9, and the person so nominated shall hold office for the remainder of the term of office of the member in whose place he is nominated.

(8) (a) During the pendency of the proceeding, if any, under clauses (b) and (c) of sub-section (2) of section 8, for removal of a member of the National Social Security Board for Unorganised Workers, such member shall abstain from the meetings of the Board;

(b) the decision of the Central Government, on the debarment, dis-qualification and removal of any member under section 8, shall be final.

10. Other welfare measures and facilities.— If, in the opinion of the Central Government, it is necessary, for the improvement of well-being of the building workers, to formulate a new welfare scheme or schemes in a State, Building Workers Welfare Board shall make provisions for such other welfare measures and facilities as may be prescribed by the Central Government.

D. GENERAL

11. Meetings, notice of meetings, list of business and quorum.—(1) (a) The Central Board or the Corporation or the National Social Security Board or the State Building Workers' Welfare Board or any Committee thereof shall, subject to sub-rule (2), meet at such place and time as may be decided by its Chairperson.

(b) The Central Board or the Corporation shall meet at least twice in a year.

(c) The Executive Committee of the Central Board and the Standing Committee of the Corporation shall meet at least four times in a year and the Medical Benefit Committee of the Corporation shall meet at least twice in a year.

(d) The National Social Security Board or the State Building Workers' Welfare Board shall meet at least thrice in a year.

(e) The Chairperson of the Central Board or the Corporation or the National Social Security Board or the State Building Workers' Welfare Board or any committee thereof may whenever he thinks fit, and shall within fifteen days of the receipt of a requisition in writing from not less than one half of the members of the body concerned call for a special meeting thereof and a requisition so made shall specify the object of the meeting proposed to be called.

(2) (a) A notice of not less than fifteen days from the date of issue, containing the date, time and place of every ordinary meeting of Central Board or Corporation or National Social Security Board or the State Building Workers' Welfare Board or any committee thereof, together with a list of business proposed to be transacted and approved by the Chairperson concerned shall be sent to every trustee or member of Central Board or Corporation or National Social Security Board or the State Building

Workers' Welfare Board or any Committee thereof, as the case may be, through e-mail or speed post (with registration) or by special messenger, and a brief note on each item of the agenda shall be sent along with the agenda as soon thereafter as possible.

(b) When the Chairperson concerned calls an emergency meeting of the Central Board or Corporation or National Social Security Board or the State Building Workers' Welfare Board or any committee thereof, as the case may be, for considering any matter which in his opinion is urgent, a notice giving such reasonable time as he may consider necessary shall be deemed sufficient and shall be sent to every trustee or member of Central Board or Corporation or National Social Security Board or the State Building Workers' Welfare Board or any Committee thereof, as the case may be, through e-mail or speed post (with registration) or by special messenger.

(c) No business other than for which the meeting of Central Board or Corporation or National Social Security Board or the State Building Workers' Welfare Board or any Committee thereof has been convened shall be considered at the meeting except with the permission of the Chairperson of the meeting.

(3) The Chairperson or in his absence the Vice-Chairperson of Central Board or Corporation or National Social Security Board or the State Building Workers' Welfare Board, as the case may be, shall preside over the meeting and in the event of absence of both the Chairperson and the Vice-Chairperson, the meeting shall be presided over by such trustee or member as may be nominated by the Chairperson.

(4) No business shall be transacted at any meeting of Central Board or Corporation or National Social Security Board or the State Building Workers' Welfare Board or any committee thereof unless a quorum of –

(a) eleven trustees in case of Central Board and four members in case of Executive Committee thereof; or

(b) fifteen members in case of Corporation, five members in case of Standing Committee and seven members in case of Medical Benefit Committee thereof; or

(c) ten members in case of National Social Security Board for Unorganised Workers and six members in case of National Social Security Board for Gig Workers and Platform Workers; or

(d) four members in case of the State Building Workers' Welfare Board;

Provided that if at any meeting, no sufficient number of trustees or members, as the case may be, are present to form quorum, the Chairperson of the meeting shall adjourn the meeting for an hour and it shall thereupon be lawful to dispose of the business at such adjourned meeting irrespective of the number of trustees or members attending.

(5) (a) If a trustee or member is unable to attend any meeting of the Central Board or Corporation or National Social Security Board or the State Building Workers' Welfare Board or any committee thereof, as the case may be, he may, by a written instrument, signed by him, addressed to the Chairperson of the concerned body and explaining the reasons for his inability to attend the meeting, appoint any representative of the organisation, which he represents on the Central Board or Corporation or National Social Security Board or the State Building Workers' Welfare Board or any committee thereof, as his substitute for attending that meeting of the Central Board or Corporation or

National Social Security Board or the State Building Workers' Welfare Board or any committee thereof in his place:

Provided that no such appointment shall be valid unless—

- (i) such appointment has been approved by the Chairperson of the body concerned; and
- (ii) the instrument making such appointment has been received by the Chairperson of the body concerned before the date fixed for the meeting.

(b) A substitute validly appointed under clause (a) shall have all the rights and powers of the member to whom he represents in relation to the meeting of the body concerned, in respect of which he is appointed and shall receive allowances, and be under obligations as if he were a trustee or the member appointed under the Code.

(c) A trustee or the member appointing a substitute for attending any meeting of the Central Board or Corporation or National Social Security Board or the State Building Workers' Welfare Board or any committee thereof under clause (a), shall, notwithstanding anything contained in this sub-rule, continue to be liable for the misappropriation or misapplication of the fund by the substitute and shall also be liable for any act of misfeasance or non-feasance committed in relation to the fund by the substitute appointed by him.

(6) Every question considered at a meeting of the Central Board or Corporation or National Social Security Board or the State Building Workers' Welfare Board or any Committee thereof shall be decided by a majority of the votes of the trustees or members of the body concerned present and voting and in the event of an equality of votes the Chairperson shall exercise an additional casting vote:

Provided that the Chairperson may, if he thinks fit, direct that any question shall be decided by the circulation of necessary papers to the trustees or members of the Central Board or Corporation or National Social Security Board or the State Building Workers' Welfare Board or any committee thereof and by securing their opinions in writing; and any such question shall be decided in accordance with the opinion of the majority of the trustees or members received within the time-limit allowed and if the opinions are equally divided, the opinion of the Chairperson shall prevail:

Provided further that any trustee or member of the Central Board or Corporation or National Social Security Board or the State Building Workers' Welfare Board or any committee thereof may request that the question referred to the trustees or members of the concerned body, as the case may be, for written opinion be considered at a meeting of the Central Board or Corporation or National Social Security Board or the State Building Workers' Welfare Board or any committee thereof and thereupon the Chairperson may, and if the request is made by not less than three trustees or members of the concerned body, shall direct that it be so considered.

(7) (a) The minutes of each meeting showing inter-alia the names of the members present there, shall be forwarded to each trustee or member of the Central Board or the Corporation or the National Social Security Board or any committee thereof, as the case may be, and to the Central Government and in the case of the State Building Workers' Welfare Board, the minutes shall be forwarded to each member or any committee thereof, as the case may be, and to the State Government concerned, as soon as possible and in any case not later than four weeks after the meeting.

(b) The records of the minutes of each meeting of the Central Board and the Executive Committee thereof shall be signed by the Central Provident Fund Commissioner with the approval of the Chairperson.

(c) The minutes of the meeting shall be confirmed with such modification considered necessary at the next meeting.

(d) The minutes of a meeting of the Central Board or the Corporation or the National Social Security Board or any committee thereof shall be kept in separate Books (hereinafter referred to as minute-books) and shall be signed by the Chairperson of the meeting at which the proceedings are confirmed.

(e) A copy of the minutes so confirmed shall be forwarded to the Central Government within fifteen days from the date of such confirmation:

Provided that in the case of State Building Workers' Welfare Board, a copy of the minutes so confirmed shall be forwarded to the State Government concerned within fifteen days from the date of such confirmation.

(f) The minute-books shall be kept open at the principal office of the Central Board or Corporation or National Social Security Board during office hours on working days for inspection free of charge by any of the respective member.

(8) (a) Every non-official trustee or member of the Central Board or the Corporation or the National Social Security Board or any committee thereof, as the case may be, shall be allowed travelling and daily allowance for attending its meetings at the rates admissible to officers of the Central Government holding a post in Level 11 in the pay matrix.

(b) Where such trustee or member, is a Member of Parliament or a Member of State Legislature, he shall be paid travelling allowance and daily allowance in accordance with the provisions of the Salary, Allowances and Pension of Members of Parliament Act, 1954 (30 of 1954) or the respective provisions of the law pertaining to the members of the concerned State Legislature, as the case may be:

Provided that when a Minister is appointed as Chairperson or trustee or member of the Central Board or the Corporation or the National Social Security Board or any committee thereof and attends a meeting, his travelling and daily allowance shall be governed by the rules applicable to him for journeys performed on official duties and shall be paid by the authority paying his salary.

(c) No daily or travelling allowance, as the case may be, in respect of any day of journey shall be claimed by a trustee or member of the Central Board or the Corporation or the National Social Security Board or any committee thereof, if he has drawn or will draw allowance for the same from his employer or as a member of the committee or any legislature or of any committee or conference constituted or convened by Government and no travelling allowance shall be claimed, if he uses a means of transport provided at the expense of Government or his employer.

(d) The daily and travelling allowance shall also be payable to a member in respect of the meetings of any sub-committee set up by the Central Board or the Corporation or the National Social Security Board or by any Committee thereof, attended by him.

(e) For attending a meeting of the Central Board or the Corporation or the National Social Security Board or any committee thereof or meetings of a sub-committee set up by the Central Board or Corporation or National Social Security Board or any Committee thereof, an official trustee or member of the Central Government shall draw his travelling allowance from his department on a scale admissible to him under the Central Government rules and the amounts so drawn shall, on a demand being made therefor by the Central Government, be reimbursed by the Central Board or Corporation or National Social Security Board or Committee thereof to that Government.

(f) Payments shall not be made to a non-official member earlier than the last date up to which the allowance is claimed and the travelling allowance for both the onward and return journeys will be included in the travelling allowance bill and the payment made therefor treated as final, irrespective of the date of completion of the journey.

12. Reconstitution of Corporation, Central Board, National Social Security Board, State Unorganised Workers' Board, Building Workers' Welfare Board or any of the Committees.—When the Central Board or the Corporation or the National Social Security Board for Unorganised Workers or the State Unorganised Workers' Social Security Board or the State Building and Other Construction Workers' Welfare Board has been superseded under the provisions of section 11, the Central Government or the State Government, as the case may be, shall —

(a) appoint or cause to be appointed or elected new trustees or members to the Central Board or the Corporation or the National Social Security Board for Unorganised Workers or the State Unorganised Workers' Social Security Board or the State Building and Other Construction Workers' Welfare Board in accordance with section 4 or section 5 or section 6 read with proviso to sub-section (6) of section 114 or section 7, as the case may be; and

(b) in its discretion, make such arrangement for such period as it may think fit, to exercise the powers and perform the functions of the Central Board or the Corporation or the National Social Security Board for Unorganised Workers or the State Unorganised Workers' Social Security Board or the State Building and Other Construction Workers' Welfare Board.

CHAPTER III

EMPLOYEES' PROVIDENT FUND

13. Form, manner, time limits and fees for filing of appeal.—(1) The language of the Tribunal shall be English:

Provided that the parties to the proceedings before the Tribunal may file documents drawn up in Hindi, if they so desire:

Provided further that —

(i) the Tribunal may, in its discretion permit the use of Hindi in the proceedings, but the final order shall be in English;

(ii) the Tribunal hearing the matter, may in its discretion, direct English translation of pleadings and documents to be filed.

(2) (a) An appeal to the Tribunal shall be presented in Form-I by the appellant in person or by an agent or by a duly authorised legal practitioner to the registry or any other officer authorised in writing by the Registrar of the Tribunal to receive the same or be sent by speed post (with registration) with acknowledgement duly addressed to the Registrar.

(b) The appeal under clause (a) shall be presented electronically or in triplicate in a paper-book form along with one unused file size envelope bearing full address of the respondent:

Provided that where the number of respondents is more than one, as many extra copies of the appeal in paper-book form as there are respondents together with unused file size envelopes bearing the full address of each respondent or electronically shall be furnished by the Appellant:

Provided also that where the number of respondents is more than five, the Registrar may permit the appellant to file the extra copies of the appeal at the time of issue of notice to the respondents.

(c) The Registrar shall cause to be issued an acknowledgement of receipt of the appeal electronically or otherwise in Form-II.

(3) (a) The Registrar, or the officer authorised by him under sub-rule (2), shall endorse on every appeal the date on which it is presented or deemed to have been presented under that rule and shall sign the endorsement digitally or otherwise.

(b) If, on scrutiny, the appeal is found to be in order, it shall be duly registered and given a serial number.

(c) If the appeal, on scrutiny, is found to be defective and the defect noticed is formal in nature, the Registrar may allow the party to rectify the same in his presence, and if the defect is not formal in nature, the Registrar shall give instruction to the appellant by speed post (with registration) or electronic mail, to remove the defects within a period of fifteen days from the date of the receipt of such intimation.

(d) If the appellant fails to rectify the defect within the specified time under clause (c), the Registrar may by order and for reasons to be recorded in writing, decline to register the appeal and inform the appellant accordingly.

(4) The appeal shall ordinarily be filed by the appellant with the Registrar of such Tribunal within whose jurisdiction —

- (i) the cause of action has arisen, or
- (ii) office of the respondent against whose order relief is sought, is located.

(5) (a) Every appeal filed with the Registrar shall be accompanied by a fee of rupees two thousand to be remitted by electronic transfer or in the form of crossed demand draft on a scheduled commercial bank in favour of the Registrar and payable at the main branch of that Bank at the station where the seat of the said Tribunal is situated.

(b) Any person aggrieved by an order passed under section 125 or section 128 may within a period of sixty days from the date of issue of the order, prefer an appeal to the Tribunal:

Provided that the Tribunal may, if it is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from preferring the appeal within sixty days, extend the said period by a further period of sixty days:

Provided further that no appeal by the employer shall be entertained by the Tribunal unless he has deposited with the respective Fund constituted under section 16, by way of electronic transfer or demand draft, a sum equal to twenty-five per cent of the amount due from him as determined under section 125.

(6) Every appeal filed under sub-rule (2) shall set forth concisely under distinct heads the grounds for such appeal and such grounds shall be numbered consecutively; and the appeal, including any miscellaneous petition shall be filed electronically or typed in double space on both sides on thick paper of good quality.

(7) (a) Every appeal being filed electronically or otherwise shall be accompanied by a paper-book containing —

- (i) a copy of the order against which the appeal is filed;
 - (ii) copies of the documents relied upon by the appellant and referred to in the appeal;
- and
- (iii) an index of the documents.

(b) The documents referred to in clause (a) may be digitally signed or attested by a legal practitioner or by a gazetted officer and each document shall be marked serially as Annexures A-1, A-2, A-3 and so on.

(c) Where an appeal is filed by an agent, document authorising him to act as such agent shall also be appended to the appeal:

Provided that where an appeal is filed by a legal practitioner, it shall be accompanied by a duly executed 'Vakalatnama' in digital format or otherwise.

(8) An appeal shall be based upon a single cause of action and may seek one or more reliefs provided that they are consequential to one another.

(9) (a) Notices and processes to be issued by the Tribunal may be served electronically or by any of the following modes as directed by the Tribunal, namely:—

- (i) service by the party itself; or
- (ii) by hand delivery (Dasti) through process server; or
- (iii) by speed post (with registration) with acknowledgement due.

(b) Where notice issued by the Tribunal is served by the party himself electronically or by 'Hand delivery' (Dasti), he shall file with the registry of the Tribunal, the acknowledgement, together with an affidavit of service.

(c) Notwithstanding anything contained in clause (a), the Tribunal may, taking into account the number of respondents and their places of residence or work and other circumstances, direct that notice of the appeal shall be served upon the respondents electronically or in any other manner including any manner of substituted service, as it appears to the Tribunal just and convenient.

(d) Notwithstanding anything done under clause (a), the Tribunal may, in its discretion, having regard to the nature and urgency of the case, direct the service of the notice on the Standing Counsels appointed as such by the Central Government or any State Government or any other authority under the Code, as the case may be.

(e) Every notice issued by the Tribunal shall, unless otherwise ordered, be accompanied by a copy of the appeal along with a copy of the paper-book.

(f) Every appellant shall pay a fee for the service or execution of process in such manner as the Tribunal may direct under clause (c), such a sum, not exceeding the actual charges incurred in effecting the service, as may be determined by the Tribunal.

(g) The fee for the service or execution of processes under clause (c) shall be remitted in the manner specified in sub-rule (5) within one week of the date of the order of the Registrar determining the fee or within such extended time as he may permit.

(h) Notwithstanding anything contained in clauses (a) to (d), if the Tribunal is satisfied that it is not reasonably practicable to serve notice of appeal upon all the respondents, it may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, direct that the appeal shall be heard notwithstanding that some of the respondents have not been served with notice of the application:

Provided that no appeal shall be heard unless -

(i) notice of appeal has been served on the Central Government or the State Government or the Central Board if such Government or Board is a respondent;

(ii) notice of appeal has been served on the authority which passed the order against which the appeal has been filed; and

(iii) the Tribunal is satisfied that the interests of the respondents on whom notice of the appeal has not been served are adequately and sufficiently represented by the respondents on whom notice of the appeal has been served.

(10)(a) Any person intending to contest the appeal, shall file electronically or in triplicate the reply to the appeal and the documents relied upon in paper-book form with the registry of the Tribunal within a period of thirty days of the service of notice of the appeal on him.

(b) In the reply filed under clause (a), the respondent shall specifically, admit, deny or explain the facts stated by the appellant in his appeal and may also state such additional facts as may be found necessary for the just decision of the case and it shall be signed digitally or otherwise and verified as a written statement by the respondent or any other person duly authorised by him in writing in the same manner as provided for in order VI, rule 15 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908).

(c) The reply referred to in clause (b) shall be filed along with the documents and the same shall be marked as R-1, R-2, R-3 and so on.

(d) The respondent shall also serve a copy of the reply along with documents as mentioned in clause (c) on the appellant or his legal practitioner, if any, electronically or otherwise and file proof of such service in the registry of the Tribunal.

(e) Where the respondent fails to file the reply within the said period of thirty days, he shall be allowed to file the reply on such other day, as may be specified by the Tribunal, for reasons to be recorded in writing and on the payment of such costs as the Tribunal deems fit, but which shall not be later than sixty days from the date of the service of notice on the respondent for such purpose.

(11) The Tribunal shall notify to the parties the date and the place of hearing of the appeal electronically or otherwise in such manner as the presiding officer of the Tribunal may, by general or special order direct.

(12) (a) The Tribunal shall draw up a calendar for the hearing of cases and, as far as possible, hear and decide the cases according to the calendar;

(b) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908), the appeal under section 23, as far as practicable, shall be heard on a day-to-day basis and endeavour shall be made to ensure that the same is decided within a period of one year.

(c) The Tribunal shall have the power to decline an adjournment and also to limit the time for oral arguments.

(13) (a) Where on the date fixed for hearing of the appeal or on any other date to which such hearing may be adjourned, the appellant does not appear when the appeal is called for hearing, the Tribunal may, in its discretion, either dismiss the appeal for default or hear and decide it on merits.

(b) Where an appeal has been dismissed for default and the appellant files an application for restoration of appeal within a period of thirty days from the date of dismissal and satisfies the Tribunal that there was sufficient cause for his non-appearance when the appeal was called for hearing, the Tribunal shall make an order setting aside the order dismissing the appeal and restore the same:

Provided that where the case was disposed of on merits, the decision shall not be reopened except by way of review.

(14) (a) Where on the date fixed for hearing the appeal or on any other date to which such hearing may be adjourned, the appellant appears and the respondent does not appear when the appeal is called for hearing, the Tribunal may, in its discretion adjourn the hearing or hear and decide the appeal ex parte.

(b) Where an appeal has been heard ex parte against a respondent or respondents, such respondent or respondents may apply to the Tribunal for an order to set it aside and if such respondent or respondents satisfy the Tribunal that the notice was not duly served or that he or they were prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing when the appeal was called for hearing, the Tribunal may make an order setting aside the ex-parte hearing as against him or them upon such terms as it thinks fit, and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the appeal:

Provided that where the ex-parte order is of such nature that it cannot be set aside as against one respondent only, it may be set aside as against all or any of the other respondents also:

Provided further that in cases covered by clause (h) of sub-rule (9), the Tribunal shall not set aside ex-parte order of an appeal merely on the ground that it was not served upon the respondent or respondents.

(15) (a) In case of death of a party during the pendency of the proceedings before the Tribunal, the legal representatives of the deceased respondent or appellant may apply electronically or otherwise within thirty days of the date of such death for being brought on record as necessary parties.

(b) Where no application is received from the legal representatives of deceased party within the period specified in clause (a), the proceedings against the deceased party shall abate:

Provided that on good and sufficient reasons the Tribunal, on an application, may set aside the order of abatement and substitute the legal representatives.

(16) The Tribunal may, if sufficient cause is shown at any stage of proceedings, grant time to the parties or any of them, and adjourn the hearing of the appeal.

(17) Every order of the Tribunal shall be in writing and shall be signed digitally or otherwise by the presiding officer who pronounced the order and the order shall be pronounced in open court.

(18)(a) Every final order passed on any appeal shall be communicated to the appellant and to the respondent concerned either electronically or otherwise by hand delivery or by speed post (with registration), free of cost.

(b) If the appellant or the respondent to any proceeding requires a copy of any document or proceeding, the same shall be supplied to him on such terms and conditions on payment of such fees as may be fixed by the presiding officer in consultation with the Central Government by general or special order, issued from time to time.

(19) The Tribunal may make such orders or give such directions as may be necessary or expedient to give effect to its orders or to prevent abuse of its process or to secure the ends of justice.

(20) Except on Saturdays, Sundays and other public holidays, the office of the Tribunal shall, subject to any order made by the presiding officer remain open from 9.30 A.M. to 6.00 P.M.

(21) The sitting hours of the Tribunal shall, ordinarily, be from 10.30 A.M. to 1.30 P.M. and 2.30 P.M. to 5.00 P.M. subject to any general or special order made by the presiding officer.

(22) (a) The Registrar shall have the custody of the records of the Tribunal and shall exercise such other functions as are assigned to him under these rules or by the presiding officer by separate order.

(b) The official seal shall be kept in the custody of the Registrar.

(c) Subject to any general or special direction by the presiding officer, the seal of the Tribunal shall not be affixed to any order, summons or other process save under the authority in writing of the Registrar.

(d) The seal of the Tribunal shall not be affixed to any certified copy issued by the Tribunal save under the authority in writing of the Registrar.

(23) In addition to the powers conferred elsewhere in these rules, the Registrar shall have the following powers and duties subject to any general or special order of the presiding officer, namely:

- (i) to receive all appeals and other documents;
- (ii) to decide all questions arising out of the scrutiny of the appeals before they are registered;
- (iii) to require any appeal presented to the Tribunal to be amended in accordance with the Code and the rules;
- (iv) subject to the directions of the Tribunal, to fix the date of first hearing of the appeals or other proceedings and issue notices thereof;
- (v) to direct any formal amendment of records;
- (vi) to order grant of copies of document to parties to the proceedings;
- (vii) to grant permission to inspect the records of the Tribunal;
- (viii) to dispose of all matters relating to the service of notices or other process for the issue of fresh notices and for extending the time for filing such appeals and to grant time not exceeding fifteen days for filing a reply or rejoinder, if any, and to place the matter before the Tribunal for appropriate order after the expiry of the aforesaid period;
- (ix) to requisition records from the custody of any court or other authority;
- (x) to receive applications, within sixty days from the date of death, for substitution of legal representatives of the deceased parties during the pendency of the appeals;
- (xi) to receive and dispose of applications for substitution, except where the substitution would involve setting aside an order of abatement; and
- (xii) to receive and dispose of application by parties for return of documents.

(24) (a) A person preferring appeal to a Tribunal under section 23 may either appear in person or take the assistance of a legal practitioner of his choice to present his case before the Tribunal.

(b) The Central Government or a State Government or any other authority under the Code may authorise one or more legal practitioner or any of its officers and every person so authorised may present the case on its behalf with respect to any appeal before a Tribunal.

(25) The official seal and emblem of the Tribunal shall be in a round shape bearing name of the Tribunal in capital letters with the National Emblem in the Centre.

(26) The dress for the presiding officer of the Tribunal and member of the staff of the Tribunal shall be such as the presiding officer may specify by order from time to time.

(27) A legal practitioner or, as the case may be, a presenting officer shall appear before the Tribunal in his professional dress, if any, and if there is no such dress, then:

- (i) if a male, in a closed collared coat and trousers or in a lounge suit;
- (ii) if a female, in a saree, or any other customary dress of sober colour.

CHAPTER IV

EMPLOYEES' STATE INSURANCE CORPORATION

14. Salary and allowances of Director General and Financial Commissioner.—(1)The Director General and the Financial Commissioner appointed by the Central Government under sub-section (1) of section 24 shall receive such pay and allowances and other benefits as are admissible to officers of the Central Government drawing corresponding level of pay:

Provided that where the Director General or the Financial Commissioner is a person already in the service of the Corporation, he shall be entitled to pension, gratuity and other superannuation benefits to which he would have been otherwise entitled but for his appointment as the Director General or the Financial Commissioner.

(2) (a) The powers and duties of the Director General of the Corporation shall be —

- (i) to act as the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation;
- (ii) to convene, under the orders of the Chairperson of the Corporation, meetings of the Corporation, the standing committee and the medical benefit committee thereof in accordance with the Code and the rules made thereunder by the Central Government and to implement the decisions reached at the meetings;
- (iii) to enter into contracts on behalf of the Corporation in accordance with the Code or the rules made by the Central Government thereunder or regulations made thereunder, or the general or special instructions of the Corporation or the Standing Committee thereof;
- (iv) to furnish all returns and documents required by the Code or the rules made thereunder by the Central Government, to the Central Government and to correspond with the Central Government and the State Governments upon all matters concerning the Corporation;
- (v) to undertake such other duties and to exercise such other powers as may from time to time, be entrusted to him under the Code and the Central Rules and Regulations made thereunder.

(b) The Director General may, with the approval of the Standing Committee, by general or special order, delegate any of his powers or duties under the Central rules or the regulations or under any resolution of the Corporation or the Standing Committee thereof, as the case may be, to any person subordinate to him and the exercise or discharge of any of the powers or duties so delegated shall be subject to such restrictions, limitations and conditions, if any, as the Director General may, with the approval of the Standing Committee of the Corporation, impose.

(3) The powers and duties of the Financial Commissioner of the Corporation shall, subject to the control of the Director General, be —

- (i) to maintain the accounts of the Corporation and to arrange for the compilation of accounts by the collection of returns from the centres and the regions of the Corporation;
- (ii) to prepare the budget of the Corporation;
- (iii) to arrange for internal audit of the accounts of the centres and the regions of the Corporation and of the receipts and payments thereat;
- (iv) to make recommendations for the investment of the funds of the Corporation; and
- (v) to undertake such other duties and to exercise such other powers as may, from time to time, be entrusted or delegated to him for executive convenience.

(4) The powers of the Corporation under sub-section (7) of section 24 for employing such officers and employees shall be exercised by the Corporation in relation to posts carrying maximum of level 14 in the pay matrix as per the Seventh Central Pay Commission.

15. Investment of Employees' State Insurance Fund or any other money held by Corporation. -

(1) The Corporation shall invest the Employees' State Insurance Fund vested in it in accordance with the guidelines issued by the Central Government.

(2) The Corporation for the efficient administration of the scheme may open as many accounts as it may consider necessary or as specified in the scheme.

(3) All expenses incurred in respect of and loss, if any, arising from any investment shall be charged to the Employees' State Insurance Fund and the profit, if any from the sale of any investment shall also accrue to the Employees' State Insurance Fund.

(4) Any investment made under this rule may, subject to the provisions of sub-rule (1), be varied, transposed or realised from time to time:

Provided that if such variation, transposition or realisation is likely to result in a loss, the prior approval of the Central Government shall be obtained.

Explanation. — The approval of the Central Government shall not be required merely on the ground that the value of the security on its maturity is less than the price at which it was purchased.

(5) The Central Government may, at any time, direct the vacation in part or in whole, or prohibit investment in any security or class of securities or any land or building.

(6) All dividends, interest or other sums received in respect of any investment shall, as soon as possible after receipt, be paid into or credited to the account of the Employees' State Insurance Fund.

16. Limits for defraying of expenditure.—For the promotion of measures for the improvement of the health and the welfare of insured persons, annual medical examination for insured persons of the age of forty years and above through the Corporation from its own hospitals or dispensaries only and for the rehabilitation and re-employment of insured persons who have been disabled or injured, the Corporation may incur an expenditure up to a limit of rupees one thousand crore per year, or as may be specified by the Central Government from time to time, from the Employees' State Insurance Fund.

17. Holding of property, etc.—(1) Subject to the provisions of sub-rule (3) and such conditions as may, from time to time, be laid down by the Corporation, the Director General may, for the purposes of the Code, acquire on behalf of the Corporation movable or immovable property:

Provided that sanction of the Standing Committee of the Corporation shall be required for the exchange of any immovable property, for the taking of any property on lease for a term exceeding thirty six months, or for the acceptance of any gift or bequest of property burdened with an obligation.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-rule (3) and such conditions as may be laid down by the Corporation from time to time, the Director General may —

(a) dispose of, by sale or exchange, any movable property belonging to the Corporation, the value of which does not exceed rupees one crore in each case, or grant for any term not exceeding twelve months a lease of any immovable property belonging to the Corporation;

(b) with the sanction of the Standing Committee of the Corporation, lease, sell or otherwise dispose of any movable or immovable property belonging to the Corporation.

(3) (a) The Corporation may enter into and perform all such contracts as it may consider necessary or expedient for carrying into effect the provisions of the Code.

(b) Every contract made under or for any purpose of the Code shall be made on behalf of the Corporation-

(i) by the Director General; or

(ii) subject to such conditions as it may specify, by such member or officer of the Corporation as it may authorise:

Provided that the sanction of the Standing Committee of the Corporation shall be obtained in respect of any contract involving an expenditure exceeding rupees twenty-five crore.

(c) Every contract entered into by any person as provided in clause (b) shall be entered into in such manner and form as would bind him if it were made on his own behalf and may in like manner and form be varied or discharged:

Provided that the common or official seal, as the case may be, of the Corporation shall be affixed to every contract for amounts exceeding rupees five lakh.

(4) (a) The Corporation may, in pursuance of a resolution passed at a meeting of the Standing Committee thereof, and with the prior approval of the Central Government, raise loans for the purposes of the Code.

(b) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, the Corporation may raise loans —

(i) for the acquisition of land or the raising of buildings thereon or both, as the case may be; or

(ii) to repay a loan raised under this sub-rule; or

(iii) for any other purpose approved by the Central Government.

(c) All loans under this sub-rule shall be obtained —

(i) from the Central Government on such rates of interest and such terms as to the time and method of repayment as the Central Government may specify; or

(ii) with the approval of the Central Government from such bank or banks specified in rule 30.

(d) Where a loan is obtained from such bank or banks specified in rule 31, the Corporation may, with the approval of the Central Government, grant mortgages of all or any of the property vested in it for securing the repayment of the sums so advanced, with interest.

(e) All payments due from the Corporation for interest on, and repayment of, loans shall be made in such manner and at such times as may have been agreed upon:

Provided that the Corporation may apply any sums, which can be so applied, in repayment of any amount due in respect of the principal amount of any loan although the repayment of the same may not be due.

(f) No expenditure incurred out of a loan shall be charged by the Corporation to capital, except with the previous sanction of the Central Government.

(g) The Corporation shall submit to the Central Government an annual statement by the thirtieth of April each year showing the loans raised and repayments made during the preceding year.

18. Insurance of employees.—(1) The employer in respect of an establishment shall before or on the day of taking any person into employment, unless such person is already registered under Chapter IV of the Code, register him by entering his name and Aadhaar number and other details on the specified portal for such purpose and an insurance number shall be automatically allotted to the employee immediately on his registration which shall remain valid for a period of thirty days. Persons already registered under chapter IV shall be added on the specified portal by inserting Insurance number and date of appointment.

(2) On registration under sub-rule (1), the employer shall enter the updated particulars of that employee and family on declaration form available on the specified portal and an Aadhaar linked identity card shall be provided by the Corporation to the insured person and his dependent family members, electronically or otherwise.

(3) The insurance number allotted under sub-rule (1) shall automatically become invalid if the employee's details are not updated on the Declaration form within a period of thirty days or the Aadhaar number provided by the newly employed person is returned unauthenticated by the concerned authorities.

(4) The employer of the establishment shall be responsible for correctness of the particulars of the employee, filled on specified portal by him and the Insured Person shall be responsible for correctness of the particulars of his family submitted to the employer.

(5) The insurance number of an employee will be used by the employer for filing the contributions and for all other purposes in respect of the employee.

(6) The insurance number allotted to the employee under sub-rule (1) shall be used by him for availing any benefits available to him or his family members or both, as the case may be, under the Code.

Explanation.— For the purposes of this rule, “insurance number” means a number allotted by the specified portal to an employee for the purpose of Chapter-IV of the Code, Central rules and regulations made thereunder.

19. Rate of contributions.—(1) The amount of contribution for a wage period shall be in respect of

(a) employer's contribution, a sum (rounded to the next higher rupee) equal to three and one-fourth per cent. of the wages payable to an employee; and

(b) employee's contribution, a sum (rounded to the next higher rupee) equal to three-fourth per cent. of the wages payable to an employee.

(2) In respect of an employee who is a person with disability under the Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act, 2016 (49 of 2016) and under the National Trust for Welfare of Persons with Autism, Cerebral Palsy, Mental Retardation and Multiple Disabilities Act, 1999 (44 of 1999), the employer shall not be required to pay employer's share of contribution up to a maximum period of three years or for such period as may be specified by the Central Government, from the date of commencement of the contribution period.

(3) The employer's share of contribution in respect of such employees and for such period under sub-rule (2) shall be reimbursed to the Corporation by the Central Government.

20. Administrative expenses.—(1) The expenditure incurred by the Corporation on the following items shall be termed as administrative expenses under section 30, namely:—

(a) payment of fees and allowances to members of the Corporation, the Standing Committee and the Medical Benefit Committee and other committees of the Corporation;

(b) payment of salaries, leave and joining time allowances, travelling and compensatory and other allowances, bonus, gratuities and compassionate allowances, pension, contributions to the Provident or other benefit funds and training related expenses of officers and employees of the Corporation;

(c) defraying expenses on depreciation and maintenance of staff cars, office buildings, staff quarters, hiring of accommodation, purchase of furniture, office equipment, stationery, printing and other expenditure in respect of offices of the Corporation;

(d) defraying expenses towards membership subscription to International Organisation, and other services for the purposes of giving effect to the provisions of Chapter IV of the Code;

(e) defraying the cost (including all expenses) of the auditing accounts of the Corporation and of the valuation of its assets and liabilities;

(f) defraying the cost (including all expenses) of the Employees' Insurance Courts set up under the Code;

(g) payment of any sums under any contract entered into for the purposes of the Code by the Corporation or the Standing Committee thereof or by any officer duly authorised by the Corporation or such Standing Committee in that behalf;

(h) payment of sums under any decree, order or award of any Court or Tribunal against the Corporation or any of its officers or servants for any act done in the execution of his duty or under a compromise or settlement of any suit or other legal proceedings or claim instituted or made against the Corporation;

(i) defraying the cost and other charges of instituting or defending any civil or criminal proceedings arising out of any action taken under the Code;

(j) defraying the expenditure in connection with publicity of the Employees' State Insurance Scheme including printing of publicity materials and courses relevant for the purposes of the Code; and

(k) defraying the expenditure on conducting evaluation studies on various aspects of functioning of the Employees' State Insurance Scheme.

(2) The percentage of the total revenue income of the Corporation which may be spent every year on its administrative expenses shall not exceed fifteen per cent.

Explanation.— For the purposes of this rule, the expression “Employees’ State Insurance Scheme” means the schemes referred to in Chapter IV of the Code, administered by the Corporation and such Central and state rules, regulations and notifications required to be administered by the Corporation including administrative instructions issued by the Corporation.

21. Limit for funeral expenses.—The amount of funeral expenses for the purposes of proviso to clause (f) of sub-section (1) of section 32 shall be notified by the Corporation and shall be twenty thousand rupees.

22. Qualification for claiming benefits.—(1) Subject to the provisions of the Code and the regulations, a person shall be qualified to claim sickness benefit for sickness occurring during any benefit period if the contributions in respect of him were payable for not less than seventy-eight days in the corresponding contribution period and shall be entitled to receive such benefit at the rate of seventy per cent. of the “Standard Benefit Rate” of that person during the corresponding contribution period rounded to the next higher rupee:

Provided that in case of a person who becomes an employee within the meaning of Chapter IV of the Code for the first time and for whom a shorter contribution period of less than one hundred and fifty six days is available, he shall be qualified to claim sickness benefit if the contribution in respect of him were payable for not less than half the number of days available for working in such contribution period:

Provided further that in case of an Insured woman in receipt of maternity benefit or an Insured Person in receipt of temporary disablement benefit and owing to such fact, as the case may be, a shorter contribution period is available to her or him, she or he shall be qualified to claim sickness benefit in the corresponding benefit period if the contribution in her or his respect were payable for not less than half the number of days available for working in such shorter contribution period:

Provided also that he shall not be entitled to the benefits for the first two days of sickness except in the case of a spell of sickness following, at an interval of not more than fifteen days, the spell of sickness for which sickness benefits were last paid:

Provided also that sickness benefits shall not be paid to any person for more than ninety-one days in any two consecutive benefit periods.

(2) (a) The sickness benefit may be extended if the person is diagnosed to be suffering from any one or more of the diseases specified in regulations made by the Corporation, provided that the Insured Person has completed four contribution periods immediately preceding the beginning of the spell in which the disease is first diagnosed and has paid contribution for a period of one hundred and fifty six days in the four aforesaid contribution periods and he is eligible to claim sickness benefit at least in one of the aforesaid four contributory periods.

(b) The extended sickness benefit shall be granted only if the Insured Person is otherwise entitled to extended sickness benefit under foregoing provisions but has exhausted the sickness benefit due to him under the fourth proviso to sub- rule (1) or is ineligible to sickness benefit in terms of sub-rule (1).

(c) The sickness benefit may be extended for a maximum period of seven hundred and thirty days including the sickness benefit under fourth proviso to sub-rule (1), subject to the conditions as specified in the regulations made under section 157.

(d) The daily rate of the extended sickness benefit of an insured person shall be eighty per cent. of the “Standard Benefit Rate”.

(3) (a) An insured woman shall be qualified to claim maternity benefits for a confinement occurring or expected to occur in a benefit period, if the contributions in respect of her were payable for not less than seventy days in the immediately preceding two consecutive contribution periods.

(b) Subject to the provisions of the Code and the regulations, if any, an insured woman who is qualified to claim maternity benefits in accordance with clause (a) shall be entitled to receive it at the daily rate specified in clause (e) for all days on which she does not work for remuneration during a period of twenty-six weeks of which not more than eight weeks shall precede the expected date of confinement:

Provided that where the insured woman dies during her delivery or during the period immediately following the date of her delivery for which she is entitled to maternity benefits, leaving behind child in either case, the maternity benefits shall be paid for the whole of that period but if the child also dies during the said period, then, for the days up to and including the day of the death of the child, to the person nominated by the insured woman in the manner as specified in the regulations made under section 157, and if there is no such nominee, to her legal representative:

Provided further that the insured woman shall be entitled to twelve weeks of maternity benefit from the date the child is handed over to the commissioning mother after birth or adopting mother, as the case may be:

Provided also that the insured woman having two or more than two surviving children shall be entitled to receive maternity benefits during a period of twelve weeks of which not more than six weeks shall precede the expected date of confinement.

(c) An insured woman who is qualified to claim maternity benefits in accordance with clause (a) shall, in case of miscarriage or medical termination of pregnancy, be entitled, on production of such proof, as may be required under the regulations made under section 157, to maternity benefits at the rates specified in clause (e), for all days on which she does not work for remuneration during a period of six weeks immediately following the date of her miscarriage or medical termination of pregnancy.

(d) An insured woman who is qualified to claim maternity benefits in accordance with clause (a) in case of sickness arising out of pregnancy, confinement, premature birth of child or miscarriage or medical termination of pregnancy shall, on production of such proof, as may be required under the regulations made under section 157, be entitled, in addition to the maternity benefits payable to her under any other provisions of the Chapter IV, for all days on which she does not work for remuneration to maternity benefits at the rates specified in the clause (e) for all days on which she does not work for remuneration during an additional period not exceeding one month.

(e) The daily rate of maternity benefit payable in respect of confinement occurring or expected to occur during any benefit period shall be equal to the standard benefit rate in respect of the insured woman during the corresponding contribution period, rounded to the next higher rupee.

(4) An insured woman and an Insured Person in respect of his wife shall be paid a sum of rupees fifteen thousand per case as medical bonus on account of confinement expenses:

Provided that the confinement occurs at a place where necessary medical facilities under the Employees’ State Insurance Scheme are not available:

Provided further that confinement expenses shall be paid for two confinements only.

(5) (a) A person shall be qualified to claim disablement benefits for temporary disablement for not less than three days (excluding the day of accident) for the period of such disablement sustained as an employee under the Code.

(b) A person shall be qualified to claim periodical payment for permanent disablement sustained as an employee under the Code whether total or partial, for such disablement:

Provided that where permanent disablement, whether total or partial, has been assessed provisionally for a limited period or finally, the benefit provided under this sub-rule shall be payable for that limited period, or as the case may be, for life.

(c) The daily rate of disablement benefit shall be ninety per cent. of the standard benefit rate in the contribution period corresponding to the benefit period in which the employment injury occurs, rounded to the next higher rupee:

Provided that where an employment injury occurs before the commencement of the first benefit period in respect of a person, the daily rate of disablement benefit shall be —

(i) where a person sustains employment injury after the expiry of the first wage period in the contribution period in which the injury occurs, ninety per cent. of his average daily wages in that wage period, rounded to the next higher rupee;

(ii) where a person sustains employment injury before the expiry of the first wage period in the contribution period in which the injury occurs, ninety per cent. of his wages actually earned or which would have been earned, had he worked for a full day on the date of accident, rounded to the next higher rupee.

Explanation. — The disablement benefit calculated under the foregoing provisions of this sub-rule shall be called the “full rate”.

(d) The disablement benefits shall be payable to the Insured Person as follows, namely: -

(i) for temporary disablement, at the full rate;

(ii) for permanent total disablement, at the full rate;

(iii) for permanent partial disablement resulting from an injury specified, in Part II of the Fourth Schedule, at such percentage of the full rate which would have been payable in the case of permanent total disablement, as specified in the said Schedule as being the percentage of the loss of earning capacity caused by the injury;

(iv) for permanent partial disablement resulting from an injury not specified in Part II of the Fourth Schedule, at such percentage of the full rate payable in the case of permanent total disablement as is proportionate to the loss of earning capacity permanently caused by the injury.

Explanation. — For the purposes of this sub-rule, where more injuries than one are caused by the same accident, the rate of benefit payable under sub-clauses (iii) and (iv) shall be aggregated but not so in any case as to exceed the full rate and in cases of disablement not covered by sub-clauses (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) at such rate, not exceeding the full rate, as provided in the regulations made under section 157.

(6) Dependants' benefit shall be paid to the dependants of the Insured Person who dies as a result of an employment injury, in the following manner, namely:-

(a) In the case of death of the Insured Person, the dependants' benefit shall be payable to his widow, children and widowed mother as follows, namely: -

(i) to the widow during life until remarriage, an amount equivalent to three-fifths of the full rate and, if there are two or more widows, the amount payable to the widow as aforesaid shall be divided equally between the widows;

(ii) to each legitimate or adopted son, an amount equivalent to two-fifths of the full rate until he attains the age of twenty-five years:

Provided that in the case of a legitimate or adopted son who is infirm and who is wholly dependent on the earnings of the Insured Person at the time of his death, dependants' benefits shall continue to be paid while the infirmity lasts;

(iii) to each legitimate or adopted unmarried daughter, an amount equivalent to two-fifths of the full rate:

Provided that in the case of legitimate or adopted daughter who is infirm and is wholly dependent on the earnings of the Insured Person at the time of his death, dependants' benefit shall continue to be paid while the infirmity lasts.

(iv) to the widowed mother during life an amount equivalent to two-fifths of the full rate:

Provided that if the total of the dependants' benefits distributed among the widow(s) and legitimate or adopted children and widowed mother of the deceased person as aforesaid exceeds at any time the full rate, the share of each of the dependants shall be proportionately reduced, so that the total amount payable to them does not exceed the amount of disablement benefits at the full rate.

(b) In case the deceased person does not leave widow or legitimate or adopted child or widowed mother, dependants' benefits shall be payable to other dependants as follows, namely:-

(i) to the widower during life until remarriage, at an amount equivalent to three-fifths of the full rate;

(ii) to a parent other than the widowed mother or grandparent, for life, at an amount equivalent to two fifths of the full rate and if there are two or more parents (other than widowed mother) or grandparents the amount payable to the parents (other than widowed mother) or grandparents as aforesaid shall be equally divided between them;

(iii) to any other —

(a) male dependant, until he attains the age of eighteen years, (b) female dependant, until she attains the age of eighteen years or until marriage, whichever is earlier or if widowed, until she attains eighteen years of age or re-marriage, whichever is earlier, at an amount equivalent to two-tenths of the full rate:

Provided that if there be more than one dependant, under sub-clause (ii), the amount payable under this sub-rule shall be equally divided between them:

Provided further that if the total of the dependants' benefits distributed among the other dependants of the deceased person under clause (b) exceeds at any time the full rate, the share of each of the dependants shall be proportionately reduced, so that the total amount payable to them does not exceed the amount of disablement benefits at the full rate.

(7) The daily rate of dependants' benefit shall be ninety per cent. of the standard benefit rate in the contribution period corresponding to the benefit period in which the employment injury occurs:

Provided that where an employment injury occurs before the commencement of the first benefit period in respect of a person, the daily rate of dependants' benefit shall be —

(i) where a person sustains employment injury after the expiry of the first wage period in the contribution period in which the injury occurs, ninety per cent. of his average daily wages during that wage period, rounded to the next higher rupee;

(ii) where a person sustains employment injury before the expiry of the first wage period in the contribution period in which the injury occurs, ninety per cent. of wages actually earned or which would have been earned had he worked for a full day on the date of accident, rounded to the next higher rupee:

Provided that the minimum total amount of the periodical monthly payment of dependants' benefit payable to all eligible dependants of a deceased employee, shall be as notified by the Corporation.

(8) At any time when its funds so permit, the Corporation may review and alter the scale of any benefit admissible under the Code and the period for which such benefit may be given.

23. Appeal to Medical Appeal Tribunal.—(1) If the Insured Person or the Corporation is not satisfied with the decision of the medical board, the Insured Person or the Corporation, as the case may be, may appeal against such decision to The Medical Appeal Tribunal referred to in sub-section (7) of section 37 by presenting an application within ninety days from the date of communication of the said decision to the Insured Person or the Corporation, as the case may be:

Provided that the medical appeal tribunal may entertain an application after the period of ninety days, if it is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient reasons for not presenting the application within the said period.

(2) The application, referred to in sub-rule (1), shall be in such form as may be specified in the regulations made under section 157.

(3) The application may be sent to the Chairperson of the Medical Appeal Tribunal by speed post (with registration) or may be presented personally.

24. Second appeal to Employees' Insurance Court. — (1) The Insured Person or the Corporation, as the case may be, may appeal to the Employees' Insurance Court by presenting an application within a period of ninety days from the date of the communication of the decision of the medical board or medical appeal tribunal:

Provided that the Employees' Insurance Court may entertain an application after the period of ninety days, if it is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient reasons for not presenting the application within the said period.

(2) The rules made by the State Government under the Code in respect of the form and manner to be followed in presenting applications to the Employees' Insurance Court, shall be applicable to the applications presented under this rule.

25. Qualification and other conditions of Insured Person and his family for claiming medical benefit.—(1) A person shall be entitled to medical benefit during any period for which contributions are paid or payable in respect of him or in which he is qualified to claim sickness benefit or maternity benefit.

(2) A person who is in receipt of disablement benefit shall be entitled to medical benefit while he is in receipt of such benefit:

Provided that after the disablement has been declared as permanent disablement, the person shall not be entitled to medical benefit, if he is not otherwise entitled to such benefit, except in respect of any medical treatment which may be rendered necessary on account of the employment injury from which the disablement resulted.

(3) A person on becoming an Insured Person for the first time shall be entitled to medical benefit for a period of three months provided that where such a person continues for three months or more to be an employee of an establishment to which the Chapter IV of the Code applies, he shall be entitled to medical benefit till the beginning of the corresponding benefit period.

(4) The person in respect of whom contributions have been paid in a contribution period for not less than seventy-eight days in the said contribution period shall be entitled to medical benefit till the end of the corresponding benefit period:

Provided that in case of a person who becomes an employee within the meaning of the Code, for the first time, and for whom a shorter contributory period of less than one hundred and fifty six days is available, he shall be entitled to medical benefit till the end of the corresponding benefit period if the contributions in respect of him were payable for not less than half the number of days available for working in such contribution period.

(5) When a person qualifies for extension of sickness benefit as per provision of clause (b) of sub-rule (2) of rule 22 and regulations made on the subject under section 157, he shall be entitled to medical benefit till the end of the relevant extended benefit period.

(6) An Insured Person, whose entitlement to medical benefit has ceased under this rule, shall again be entitled to medical benefit from the date of his re-employment as an employee under Chapter IV of the Code by an establishment to which the Code applies immediately on registration on specified portal for such purpose and such an Insured Person shall, unless he is covered by sub-rule (4) or (5), be entitled to medical benefit till the commencement of the benefit period corresponding to the contribution period in which he is re-employed.

(7) The family of an Insured Person shall become entitled to medical benefit from such date as may be specified by the Corporation, by notification and shall continue to be so entitled so long as the Insured Person is entitled to receive medical benefit for himself, or in the case of death of the Insured Person till such date up to which the Insured Person would have remained entitled to medical care, had he survived.

(8) An Insured Person and his family shall be entitled to receive medical benefit only of such kind and on such scale as may be provided by the State Government or by the Corporation, as the case may be, and an Insured Person or his family shall not have a right to claim any medical treatment except such as is provided by the dispensary, hospital, clinic or other institution to which he or his family is allotted, or as may be provided by the regulations made under section 157.

(9) Nothing in these rules shall entitle an Insured Person and his family to claim reimbursement from the Corporation of any expenses incurred in respect of any medical treatment, except as may be provided by the regulations made under section 157.

(10) An Insured Person who ceases to be in an insurable employment on account of permanent disablement caused due to an employment injury shall be eligible to receive medical benefits for himself and his spouse at the scale to be provided under sub-rule (8), subject to —

(i) the production of proof by such an Insured Person that he ceased to be in an insurable employment on account of permanent disablement due to employment injury to the satisfaction of such officer in such manner as may be authorised by the Corporation;

(ii) the payment of contribution at the rate of fifty rupees per month in lump sum for one year at a time in advance to the concerned office of the Corporation in the manner specified by it; and

(iii) after demise of disabled Insured Person, his spouse shall be eligible to receive medical benefit at the scale as provided in sub-rule (8), subject to payment of contributions specified in clause (ii).

(11) The widow or widower, as the case may be, of an insured person in receipt of dependant benefits shall be eligible to receive medical benefit at the scale to be provided in sub-rule (8) subject to the payment of contribution at the rate of rupees fifty per month in lump sum for one year at a time in advance to the concerned officer of the Corporation in the manner specified by it.

(12) The employer may avail the facility of free annual medical examination in respect of Insured Person of the age of forty years and above through the Corporation from its own dispensaries or hospitals on the scale as provided in the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions (Central) Rules, 2026.

(17) The Society may sue or be sued in the name of Chief Executive Officer of the Society or of such other members as shall, in reference to the matter concerned, be appointed by the Governing Body for the occasion.

(18) The Society shall engage employees on deemed deputation from the State Government or the Public Sector Undertaking or the Central Government or the Corporation and their pensionary liabilities, if any, shall rest with respective appointing authorities.

(19) The Society shall carry out any other activity as may be specified by the Central Government or as may be directed by the Corporation.

(20) The non-official members of the Governing Body, and the Executive Committee, of the Society shall be allowed travelling allowance and daily allowance for attending its meetings at the rates admissible to the officers of the Central Government holding a post in level 12 in the pay matrix.

27. Capitalised value of benefit payable to the employee.—The capitalised value of the permanent disablement benefit and dependants' benefit shall be calculated by multiplying the daily rate of benefit with the multiplication factor based on age of the Insured Person or the dependants provided in the regulations made under section 157.

28. Terms and conditions for operation of scheme for other beneficiaries.—The terms and conditions for providing benefits under the scheme for other beneficiaries under section 44, such as may be notified, by the Central Government from time to time and user charges shall be as specified by the Corporation from time to time, with the prior approval of the Central Government.

29. Proceedings before Employees' Insurance Court, etc.— (1) The proceedings before an Employees' Insurance Court shall be commenced on application by the Corporation or the aggrieved person or the employer of an establishment, as the case may be.

(2) Subject to the provisions of Chapter IV of the Code and any rules made by the State Government thereunder, all proceedings before the Employees' Insurance Court shall be instituted in the Court appointed for the local area in which the Insured Person was working at the time the question or dispute arose.

(3) If the Court is satisfied that any matter arising out of any proceedings pending before it can be more conveniently dealt with by any other Employees' Insurance Court in the same State, it may, subject to any rules made by the State Government in this behalf, order such matter to be transferred to such other Court for disposal and shall forthwith transmit to such other Court the records connected with that matter.

(4) The State Government may transfer any matter pending before any Employees' Insurance Court in the State to any such Court in another State with the consent of the State Government of that State.

(5) The Court to which any matter is transferred under sub-rule (3) or sub-rule (4) shall continue the proceedings, further from the stage it is transferred to it, as if they had been originally instituted in it.

30. Administration of Fund.—(1) All moneys accruing or payable to the Employees' State Insurance Fund shall be received by such officers of the Corporation as may be authorised by it in this behalf and the amount so received shall as soon as practicable be acknowledged by a receipt electronically or otherwise in such form as specified in the regulations made under section 157 and deposited in the Reserve Bank of India or Banks approved by the Central Government to the account of such fund:

Provided that such bank or banks for depositing the fund shall be a nationalised bank or any scheduled bank authorised for Government agency business.

Explanation. — For the purposes of this rule, - (a) “nationalised bank” means a corresponding new bank specified in the First Schedule to the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1970 (5 of 1970) or a corresponding new bank specified in the First Schedule to the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1980 (40 of 1980);

(b) “scheduled bank” means a scheduled bank referred to in section 42 and specified in the Second Schedule to the Reserve Bank of India Act, 1934 (2 of 1934); and

(c) “authorised bank for Government agency business” means banks notified by the Government of India Department of Expenditure in the Ministry of Finance vide Office Memorandum number S-11021/1(20)/Rly/2008/RBD/2018, dated 7th December, 2016, as amended from time to time.

(2) (a) All moneys accruing or payable to the Corporation shall be credited to the bank or banks approved by the Central Government for such purpose and not utilised directly for any purpose;

(b) Such bank or banks shall be required at the end of every calendar month to furnish to the Corporation or such officer as may be authorised by it in this behalf, a statement of the amounts deposited in and withdrawn from the Fund during the month and these statements shall be examined by the Director General before the expiry of a period of two months following the period to which the statement relates.

(3) (a) The accounts of the fund shall be operated on by such officers as may be authorised by the Standing Committee, with the approval of the Corporation.

(b) No payment shall be made by the bank or banks out of the fund except on a cheque signed by such officers as may be authorised under clause (a).

(c) Any payment in excess of one thousand rupees shall be made electronically or by means of a cheque signed as aforesaid and not in any other way unless specifically authorised by the Standing Committee or the Corporation.

(d) No payment shall be made out of the fund unless the expenditure is covered by a current budget grant:

Provided that in the absence of a current budget grant, the Corporation may authorise payments either generally or for any particular case:

Provided further that the payment of benefits to Insured Persons under the provisions of the Code and of the pay and allowances of duly sanctioned posts shall not be withheld for want of a sanctioned budget grant.

(4) Before any person authorised under sub-rule (3) signs a cheque or authorises an electronic payment, he shall satisfy himself that the sum for which the cheque is drawn is —

(i) required for a purpose or work specifically sanctioned by the competent authority and covered by a current budget grant; and

(ii) required for any payment referred to and specified under section 26.

(5) (a) The budget estimates of the Corporation for each financial year beginning on the 1st day of April and ending on the 31st day of March next shall be prepared by the Financial Commissioner of the Corporation in such form as the Central Government may, from time to time, direct and shall be submitted with his recommendations by the Director General to the Standing Committee for approval at a meeting of the Standing Committee to be held before the 1st day of February of the preceding year.

(b) A copy of the budget estimates shall be sent to each member of the Standing Committee and of the Corporation at least seven clear days before the meeting of the Standing Committee or the Corporation at which these estimates are to be considered.

(c) The Standing Committee shall consider and approve the budget estimates with such changes as it may consider necessary.

(d) The budget estimates as approved by the Standing Committee shall be placed before a meeting of the Corporation to be held before the 20th day of February of the preceding year.

(e) The budget estimates as passed by the Corporation shall be authenticated by affixing the common seal of the Corporation and shall be submitted to the Central Government under section 117, not later than the 1st day of March next following.

(f) It shall be open to the Central Government to make such alterations in the budget estimates as may be considered necessary before according approval.

(g) The budget estimates as finally adopted by the Corporation and as approved by the Central Government shall be placed before the Parliament by the administrative Ministry concerned in the month of March preceding the financial year to which the estimates relate.

(6) The Standing Committee of the Corporation may cause a supplementary estimate to be prepared and submitted to the Corporation if in respect of any financial year further expenditure is likely to be incurred and every such supplementary estimate shall be considered and sanctioned by the Corporation and submitted to the Central Government in the same manner as if it were an original annual estimate, not later than the 15th day of February of the financial year to which it relates and the provisions of sub-rule (5) shall, so far as may be, apply to such supplementary estimate.

(7) (a) If the Director General finds in the course of the year that there is likely to be an excess of expenditure over the sanctioned budget estimate under any head, he shall examine the allotment under each head of the budget estimate with the object of discovering probable savings under any other head and effecting a re-appropriation and where such re-appropriation is feasible, he may sanction the re-appropriation subject to such conditions as may be laid down by the Central Government from time to time.

(b) Fund shall not be re-appropriated to meet expenditure on a new service not contemplated in the budget estimates except with the prior approval of the Central Government.

(c) No re-appropriation shall be permitted between the grant sanctioned for administrative expenses, two-thirds of which shall be met by the Central Government, and a grant sanctioned for any other expenditure.

CHAPTER VGRATUITY

31. Gratuity invested for benefit of minor.—In the case of a nominee, or an heir, who is minor, the competent authority referred to in the third proviso to sub-section (1) of section 53 shall invest the gratuity amount deposited with him by the employer for the benefit of such minor in term deposit with the State Bank of India or any nationalised bank.

Explanation.— For the purposes of this rule, "nationalised bank" means a corresponding new bank specified in the First Schedule to the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1970 (5 of 1970) or a corresponding new bank specified in the First Schedule of the Banking Companies (Acquisition and Transfer of Undertakings) Act, 1980 (40 of 1980).

(ii) in the case of an employee who completes one year of service after the date of commencement of these rules, ordinarily within ninety days of the completion of one year of service:

Provided that nomination in Form-III shall be accepted by the employer after the expiry of the specified period, if filed and no nomination so accepted shall be invalid merely because it was filed after the specified period.

(2) Within thirty days of the receipt of nomination in Form-III under sub-rule (1), the employer shall get the service particulars of the employee, as mentioned in the form of nomination, verified with reference to the records of the establishment and return to the employee, after obtaining a receipt thereof, the duplicate copy of the nomination in Form-III duly attested either by the employer or an officer authorised in this behalf by him, as a token of recording of the nomination by the employer and the other copy of the nomination shall be retained by him.

Provided that the details of Aadhaar of the nominee shall be provided by the employee at the time of filling the nomination form.

(3) An employee who has no family at the time of making a nomination shall, within ninety days of acquiring a family submit in the manner specified in sub-rule (1), a fresh nomination, as required under sub-section (4) of section 55, duplicate in Form-III to the employer and thereafter the provisions of sub-rule (2) shall apply mutatis mutandis as if it was made under sub-rule (1).

(4) A notice of modification of a nomination, including cases where a nominee predeceases an employee, shall be submitted in duplicate in Form-III to the employer in the manner specified in sub-rule (1), and thereafter the provisions of sub-rule (2) shall apply mutatis mutandis as if it was made under sub-rule (1).

(5) A nomination or a fresh nomination or a notice of modification of nomination shall be, signed by the employee or, if illiterate, shall bear his thumb impression in the presence of two competent witnesses, who shall also sign a declaration to that effect in the nomination, fresh nomination or notice of modification of nomination, as the case may be, and shall be submitted by the employee electronically or by personal service or by speed post (with registration) to the employer.

(6) A nomination, fresh nomination or notice of modification of nomination shall take effect from the date of receipt thereof by the employer.

33. Application for gratuity and appeal etc.,— (1) (a) An employee who is eligible for payment of gratuity under the Code, or any person authorised, in writing, to act on his behalf, shall apply, ordinarily within a period of thirty days from the date the gratuity became payable, in Form-IV to the employer:

Provided that where the date of superannuation or retirement of an employee is known, the employee may apply to the employer before thirty days of the date of superannuation or retirement:

Provided further that an employee on fixed term employment shall be eligible for gratuity, if he renders service under the contract for a period of at least one year and for subsequent period in excess of six months and more, but less than one year, shall be rounded off to one additional year.

(b) A nominee of an employee who is eligible for payment of gratuity under the third proviso to sub-section (1) of section 53 shall apply, ordinarily within thirty days from the date gratuity became payable to him, in Form-IV to the employer:

Provided that an application in plain paper with relevant particulars shall also be accepted and the employer may obtain such other particulars as may be deemed necessary by him.

(c) A legal heir of an employee, who is eligible for payment of gratuity under the third proviso to sub-section (1) of section 53, shall apply, ordinarily within one year from the date gratuity became payable to him, in Form-IV to the employer;

(d) Where gratuity becomes payable under the Code before the commencement of these rules, the periods of limitation specified in clauses (a), (b) and (c) shall be deemed to be operative from the date of such commencement;

(e) An application for payment of gratuity filed after the expiry of the periods specified in this rule shall also be entertained by the employer, if the applicant adduces sufficient cause for the delay in preferring his claim, and no claim for gratuity under the Code shall be invalid merely because the claimant failed to present his application within the specified period and any dispute in this regard shall be referred to the competent authority for his decision.

(f) An application under this rule shall be presented to the employer either electronically or by personal service or by speed post (with registration).

(2) (a) within fifteen days of the receipt of an application under sub-rule (1) for payment of gratuity, the employer shall—

(i) if the claim is found admissible on verification, issue a notice in Form-V to the applicant employee, nominee or legal heir, as the case may be, specifying the amount of gratuity payable and fixing a date, not being later than the thirtieth day after the date of receipt of the application, for payment thereof; or

(ii) if the claim for gratuity is not found admissible, issue a notice in Form-V to the applicant employee, nominee or legal heir, as the case may be, specifying the reasons why the claim for gratuity is not considered admissible and a copy of the notice shall be endorsed to the competent authority.

(b) In case payment of gratuity is due to be made in the employer's office, the date fixed for the purpose in the notice in Form-V under sub-clause (i) of clause (a) sub-rule (2) shall be re-fixed by the employer, if a written application in this behalf is made by the payee explaining why it is not possible for him to be present in person on the date specified.

(c) If the claimant for gratuity is a nominee or a legal heir, the employer may ask for such witness(es) or evidence(s) as may be deemed relevant for establishing his identity or maintainability of his claim, as the case may be and in that case, the time limit specified for issuance of notices under clause (a) of sub-rule (2) shall be operative with effect from the date such witness(es) or evidence(s), as the case may be, called for by the employer is furnished to the employer.

(d) A notice in Form-V shall be served on the applicant either by personal service after taking receipt or by speed post (with registration) or electronically.

(e) A notice under sub-section (2) of section 56 shall be in Form-V.

(3) The gratuity payable under the Code shall be paid through Demand Draft or by crediting in the bank account of the eligible employee, nominee or legal heir, as the case may be.

(4) (a) If an employer—

(i) refuses to accept a nomination under rule 32 or to entertain an application sought to be filed under sub-rule (1); or

(ii) issues a notice under clause (a) of sub-rule (2) either specifying an amount of gratuity which is considered by the applicant less than what is payable or rejecting eligibility to payment of gratuity; or

(iii) having received an application under sub-rule (1) fails to issue notice as required under sub-rule (2) within the time specified therein, the claimant employee, nominee or legal heir, as the case may be, may, within one hundred eighty days of the occurrence of the cause for the application, apply in Form-VI to the competent authority for issuing a direction under sub-section (5) of section 56 with copy to the opposite party:

Provided that the competent authority may accept any application under this sub-rule, on sufficient cause being shown by the applicant, after the expiry of the specified period.

(b) Application under clause (a) and other documents relevant to such an application shall be presented in person to the competent authority or shall be sent by speed post (with registration) or electronically.

(5) (a) On receipt of an application under sub-rule (4) the competent authority shall, by issuing a notice in Form-VII, electronically or speed post (with registration) acknowledgment due or in person call upon the applicant as well as the employer to appear before him on a specified date, time and place, either by himself or through his authorised representative through virtual mode or otherwise together with all relevant documents and witnesses, if any.

(b) Any person desiring to act on behalf of an employer or employee, nominee or legal heir, as the case may be, shall present to the competent authority a letter of authority from the employer or the person concerned, as the case may be, on whose behalf he seeks to act together with a written statement explaining his interest in the matter and praying for permission so to act and the competent authority shall record thereon an order either according his approval or specifying, in the case of refusal to grant the permission prayed for, the reasons for the refusal.

(c) A party who is being represented by an authorised representative shall be bound by the acts of the representative.

(d) After completion of hearing on the date(s) fixed under clause (a), or after taking such further evidence(s), examination of documents or witnesses, hearing and inquiry, as may be deemed necessary, the competent authority shall record his finding as to whether any amount is payable to the applicant under the Code and a copy of the finding shall be given to each of the parties.

Provided that the Competent Authority shall dispose of the application for gratuity within six months from the date of receipt of the application:

Provided further that the Competent Authority may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, extend the said period for a further period not exceeding three months.

(e) If the employer concerned fails to appear on the specified date of hearing after due service of notice without sufficient cause being shown, the competent authority may proceed to hear and determine the application ex parte; and if the applicant fails to appear on the specified date of hearing without sufficient cause, the competent authority may dismiss the application:

Provided that an order under clause (e) may, on good cause being shown within a period of thirty days of receipt of the said order, be reviewed and the application re-heard after giving not less than fourteen days' notice to the opposite party of the date fixed for rehearing of the application.

(6) The sittings of the competent authority shall be held at such times and at such places as he may fix and he shall inform the parties of the same electronically or otherwise.

(7) The competent authority may authorise a clerk of his office to administer oaths for the purpose of giving evidence or producing documents.

(8) The competent authority may, at any stage of the proceedings before him, either upon or without an application by any of the parties involved in the proceedings before him, and on such terms as may appear to the competent authority just, issue summons to any person in Form-VII either to give evidence or to produce documents or for both purposes on a specified date, time and place.

(9) (a) Subject to the provisions of clause (b), any notice, summons, process or order issued by the competent authority may be served either personally or by speed post (with registration) or electronically or in any other manner as provided under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908).

(b) Where there are numerous persons as parties to any proceeding before the competent authority and such persons are members of any trade union or association or are represented by an authorised person, the service of notice on the secretary, or where there is no secretary, on the principal officer of the trade union or association, or on the authorised person shall be deemed to be service on such persons.

(10) (a) The competent authority shall record the particulars of each case under section 56 and at the time of passing orders shall sign and date the particulars so recorded.

(b) The competent authority shall, while passing orders in each case, also record the findings on the merits of the case and file it together with the memoranda of evidence with the order sheet.

(c) Any record, other than a record of any order or direction, which is required by these rules to be signed by the competent authority, may be signed on behalf of and under the direction of the competent authority by any subordinate officer appointed in writing for this purpose by the competent authority.

(11) If a finding is recorded under clause (d) of sub-rule (5) that the applicant is entitled to payment of gratuity under the Code, the competent authority shall issue a notice to the employer concerned in Form-VIII electronically or by speed post (with registration) or in person specifying the amount payable and directing payment thereof to the applicant under intimation to the competent authority within a period of thirty days from the date of the receipt of the notice by the employer and a copy of the notice shall be endorsed to the applicant employee, nominee or legal heir, as the case may be.

(12) (a) The memorandum of appeal under sub-section (8) of section 56 shall be submitted to the appellate authority specified, by order, by the Central Government with a copy thereof to the opposite party and the competent authority either through delivery in person or by speed post (with registration) or electronically.

(b) The memorandum of appeal shall contain the facts of the case, the decision of the competent authority, the grounds of appeal and the relief sought.

(c) There shall be appended to the memorandum of appeal a certified copy of the finding of the competent authority and direction for payment of gratuity.

(d) On receipt of the copy of memorandum of appeal, the competent authority shall forward records of the case to the appellate authority.

(e) Within fourteen days of the receipt of the copy of the memorandum of appeal from the appellate authority, the opposite party shall submit his reply of each paragraph of the memorandum with additional pleas, if any, to the appellate authority with a copy to the appellant.

(f) The appellate authority shall record its decision after giving the parties to the appeal a reasonable opportunity of being heard and a copy of the decision made by the appellate authority shall be given to the parties to the appeal electronically or by speed post (with registration) or in person and a copy thereof shall be sent to the competent authority returning records of the case sent by him:

Provided that the Appellate Authority shall dispose of the application for gratuity within six months from the date of receipt of the application:

Provided further that the Appellate Authority may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, extend the said period for a further period not exceeding three months.

(g) The competent authority shall, on receipt of the decision of the appellate authority, make necessary entry in the records of the case maintained by him.

(h) On receipt of the decision of the appellate authority, the competent authority shall, if required under that decision, modify his direction for payment of gratuity and issue a notice to the employer concerned in Form-VIII specifying the modified amount payable and directing payment thereof to the applicant, under intimation to the competent authority within a period of fifteen days of the receipt of the notice by the employer and a copy of the notice be endorsed to the appellant employee, nominee or legal heir, as the case may be, and to the appellate authority.

(13) Where an employer fails to pay the gratuity due under the Code in accordance with the notice by the competent authority under sub-rule (11) or sub-rule (12), as the case may be, the employee concerned, his nominee or legal heir, as the case may be, to whom the gratuity is payable may apply to the competent authority in duplicate in Form IX for recovery thereof under section 129.

34. Qualifications and experience of competent authority.—The competent authority shall be appointed by the Central Government, by notification, from its gazetted officers having experience in labour matters.

(e) drinking water, milk and wholesome refreshments shall be available for the children at the crèche;

(viii) (a) In any establishment where there is a sole negotiating union under sub-section (2) or (3) of section 14 of the Industrial Relations Code, 2020 (35 of 2020) or a negotiating council under sub-section (4) of section 14 of the Industrial Relations Code, 2020 (35 of 2020), then, such negotiating union or negotiating council, as the case may be, may enter into an agreement with the employer of the establishment that the crèche facility under section 67 shall be provided, if women or widower or single parent employees, who are having children below the age of six years and eligible to get crèche facility and if not provided, then, such employee shall be paid crèche allowance every month by that establishment.

(b) Where there is no sole negotiating union or negotiating council referred to in sub-clause (a) the majority of the employees of the establishment may enter into an agreement with the employer of the establishment that the crèche facility under section 67 shall be provided, if women or widower or single parent employees, who are having children below the age of six years and eligible to get crèche facility and if not provided, then, such employee shall be paid crèche allowance every month by that establishment.

Provided that, in both cases under clause (a) and this clause, the amount of crèche allowance shall not be less than rupees five hundred per month per child or such amount as may be notified by the Central Government from time to time:

Provided further that the crèche allowance shall be admissible for two children only except when the number of children exceeds two due to second child birth resulting in multiple births.

38. Gross misconduct.—(1) The following acts shall constitute gross misconduct for the purposes of second proviso to sub-section (1) of section 68, namely:—

(a) wilful destruction of employer's goods or property;

(b) assaulting any superior or co-employee at the place of work;

(c) criminal offence involving moral turpitude resulting in conviction in a court of law;

(d) theft, fraud, or dishonesty in connection with the employer's business or property; and

(e) wilful non-observance of safety measures or rules on the subject or wilful interference with safety devices or with firefighting equipment.

(2) (a) An appeal under sub-section (2) of section 68 shall be preferred to the competent authority in Form-XII;

(b) The appeal may be made in writing and either handed over personally or sent under a registered cover or electronically to the competent authority.

(c) When an appeal is received, the competent authority shall furnish a copy of the memorandum of appeal to the employer, call for his reply thereto and also ask him to produce documents connected with the issue of the appeal by fixing a date.

(d) The competent authority may ascertain further details, if necessary, from the employer as well as from the appellant, and he shall consider the facts presented to him, if any, and shall give his decision.

Provided that the Competent Authority shall dispose of the appeal within three months from the date of receipt of the appeal:

Provided further that the Competent Authority may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, extend the said period for a further period not exceeding three months.

(e) In case the employer fails to submit his reply or produce the required documents within the specified period, the competent authority may give his decision ex-parte.

39. Complaint before Inspector-cum-Facilitator and appeal.—(1) (a) A complaint under sub-section (1) of section 72 shall be made in writing in Form-XIII-A to the Inspector-cum-Facilitator having jurisdiction.

(b) When a complaint referred to in sub-rule (1) is received by an Inspector-cum-Facilitator, he shall examine the relevant records maintained by the employer in this behalf, examine any person employed in the establishment and take down necessary statement for the purpose of the enquiry and if he is satisfied that the maternity benefit or any amount has been improperly withheld or the woman employee is discharged or dismissed, he shall direct the employer to make the payment to the complainant or to the person claiming the payment under section 63, and pass such order as he deems fit, immediately but not exceeding period of 45 days.

(2) (a) An appeal against the decision of the Inspector-cum-Facilitator, shall lie to the competent authority.

(b) The aggrieved person shall prefer an appeal in writing to the competent authority in Form-XIII-B and file other supporting documents.

(c) When an appeal is received, the competent authority shall call record of the case from the Inspector-cum-Facilitator before fixing the date of hearing. The competent authority shall, if necessary, also record the statements of the aggrieved person, and of the Inspector-cum-Facilitator and seek clarification, if any is required.

(d) Taking into account the document(s), the evidence produced before him and the facts presented to him or ascertained by him, the competent authority shall give his decision.

Provided that the Competent Authority shall dispose off the appeal within three months from the date of receipt of the appeal.

Provided further that the Competent Authority may for reasons to be recorded in writing, extend the said period for a further period not exceeding three months.

40. Duties of Inspector-cum-Facilitator.—(1) (a) The competent authority shall be responsible for the administration of these rules within their respective areas notified by the Central Government.

(b) Every Inspector-cum-Facilitator shall discharge his duties within the area assigned to him by the Central Government and shall act under the supervision and control of the competent authority.

(c) Every Inspector-cum-Facilitator shall at each inspection of an establishment see—

(i) whether due action has been taken on every notice given under section 62;

(ii) whether the register of women employees referred to in rule 53 is correctly maintained;

(iii) whether there have been any cases of discharge or dismissal or notices of discharge or dismissal in contravention of the provisions of section 68 since the last inspection;

(iv) whether the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 59, sub-sections (5) and (6) of section 62, sections 64, 65, 66, 67, 69 and 71 have been complied with and whether amounts due have been paid within the time as per the relevant provisions of the Code and rules made by the Central Government;

(v) whether there have been any cases of deprivation of maternity benefit or medical bonus as referred to in sub-section (2) of section 68; and

(vi) how far the irregularities pointed out at previous inspections have been remedied and how far orders previously issued have been complied with.

(d) Where an Inspector-cum-Facilitator observes any irregularity against the Code or the rules, he shall issue an order in writing electronically or otherwise to the employer asking the employer to rectify the irregularities within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of the order and report compliance to the Inspector-cum-Facilitator.

(2) The employer shall supply to every woman employed by him at her request free of cost copies of Forms-X, XI, XII, XIII-A and XIII-B.

(3) Nothing in sub-rule (2) of rule 35 and sub-rules (1) and (2) of rule 39 shall affect the right of a woman entitled to receive maternity benefit or any other amount due under the Code if she fails to submit a notice, appeal or complaint under the said rules, as the case may be, in a form specified for such purpose:

Provided that where a notice, appeal or complaint under the said rules has been submitted by a woman entitled to receive maternity benefit or any other amount due under the Code in a form other than the form specified for such purpose, the authority concerned may, within fifteen days of the receipt of such notice, appeal or complaint require the woman to submit the notice, appeal or complaint, as the case may be, in the form specified for such purpose.

(4) The abstract of the provisions of Chapter VI of the Code and the Central rules made there under required to be exhibited under section 71 shall be in Form-XIV, and shall be exhibited in such manner as the competent authority may require.

CHAPTER VIISOCIAL SECURITY AND CESS IN RESPECT OF BUILDING AND OTHER CONSTRUCTION WORKERS

41. Collection and refund of cess.— (1) (a) Every employer, within sixty days from the date of commencement of his work or payment of cess, as the case may be, furnish to the assessing officer, information in Form-XV.

(b) Any change or modification in the information furnished under clause (a) shall be communicated to the assessing officer in Form-XV incorporating details of such modifications immediately but not later than thirty days from the date of affecting the modification or change.

(2) (a) The cess levied under sub-section (1) of section 100 shall be paid by an employer in advance, on the basis of his self-assessment duly certified by a chartered engineer at the time of approval or before the commencement of the work.

(b) For the purpose of self-assessment of cost of construction, the employer shall calculate the cost of construction work on the uniform rate or rates of construction as specified by respective State's Public Works Department (PWD) or the Central Public Works Department (CPWD) or any other schedule of rates applicable to such building or construction work or rates as per return or document submitted to the Real Estate Regulatory Authority for a building work (where Real Estate Regulatory Authority is applicable), applicable for that particular year in which the commencement of building or other construction work took place in Form-XVI.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions contained in clauses (a) and (b), where the approval of a construction work by a local authority or such other authority notified by the State Government, as the case may be, is required, every application for such approval shall be accompanied by proof of online payment made in favour of the State Building Workers' Welfare Board for an amount of cess payable on the basis of self-assessment duly certified by the chartered engineer:

Provided that if the duration of the project is likely to exceed one year, the amount of cess payment may be for the amount of cess payable on cost of construction self-assessed to be incurred during one year from the date of commencement of the concerned building or other construction work and further payments of due cess shall be made as per the provisions of clause (b).

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of clauses (a) and (b), where the levy of cess pertains to building or other construction work of a Government or of a public sector undertaking, such Government or the public sector undertaking shall deduct, or cause to be deducted, the cess payable at the notified rates from the bills paid for such works. This deducted cess shall be deposited with the respective State Building Workers' Welfare Board within a period of thirty days from the date of such deduction made along with the details of the construction work to the assessing officer of the area concerned.

(e) In case, there is any stoppage or reduction of building or other construction work, employer shall furnish the information in Form-XVII, to the assessing officer within sixty days of such stoppage or reduction of building or other construction work.

(f) Every employer on completion of building or other construction work, shall be required to submit a return in Form-XVIII, to the assessing officer within sixty days of each completed project.

(g) Advance cess paid under the aforementioned provision shall be adjusted in the final assessment order made by assessing officer.

(3) (a) The proceeds of the cess collected under sub-rule (2), shall be transferred by such Central or State Government office, public sector undertaking, local authority or such other authority notified by the State Government, or assessing officer, as the case may be, in the bank account of the State Building Workers' Welfare Board, electronically through online payment system.

(b) The amount so collected shall be transferred to such Board's fund within thirty days of its collection through online payment system.

(c) The State Building Workers' Welfare Board shall periodically reconcile the amount of cess collected, with the concerned authorities of the State Government or Central Government or Public Sector Undertaking of the State Government or the Central Government or any such other authority, as specified by the appropriate Government.

(d) The State Building Workers' Welfare Board shall submit half-yearly report, to the State Government with a copy to the Central Government, on the amount of cess collected, cumulative and during the period, expenditure incurred during the period, number of live building or other construction workers, for such period and with such details, as specified by the Central Government.

(4) (a) The assessing officer, on receipt of information of return and cess paid from an employer in Form-XVIII, may conduct a scrutiny of such information furnished and, if he is satisfied about the correctness of the particulars so furnished, he shall make an order of assessment within a period not exceeding one hundred and eighty days from the date of receipt of such information, indicating the amount of cess payable by the employer and endorse a copy thereof to the employer and to the cess-collector and to the Building Workers' Welfare Board and despatch such order within five days of the date on which such order is made:

Provided that such scrutiny shall be done by the assessing officer only where the amount of cess based on self-assessment exceeds rupees ten lakhs:

Provided further that if the assessing officer fails to make the order of assessment within a period of one hundred and eighty days, the self-assessment shall be deemed to be final.

(b) The order shall, inter-alia, specify the amount of cess due, cess already paid by the employer or deducted at source and the balance amount payable and the date, consistent with the provision of sub-rule (2), by which the cess shall be paid to the cess collector.

(c) If on the scrutiny of information furnished by the employer in Form-XVIII, the Assessing Officer is of the opinion that employer has undervalued or miscalculated the cost of construction or has calculated less amount of cess payable, he shall issue notice to the employer for assessment of the cess.

(d) On receipt of such notice the employer shall furnish to the Assessing Officer a reply together with copies of documentary or other evidences in support of his claim, within thirty days of the receipt of the notice:

Provided that the Assessing Officer may, in the course of assessment afford an opportunity to the assessee to be heard in person, if he so requests to substantiate his claim.

(e) If the employer fails to furnish the reply within the stipulated period specified under clause (d) or where any employer fails to furnish information in Form-XVIII, the Assessing Officer shall proceed to make the assessment on the basis of the available records and other information incidental thereto.

(f) The assessing officer may, at any time while the work is in progress or in the process of assessment of cost of construction authorise an officer to make such enquiry at the work site or from documentary evidence or in any other manner as he may think fit for the purpose of estimating the cost of construction as accurately as possible.

(5) (a) Where the employer has deposited the cess in advance and the employer decides to withdraw from or foreclose the works or modifies the plan of construction thereby reducing the cost of construction undertaken or has been forced by other circumstances to call off the completion of the work undertaken, he may seek refund of the excess amount of advance cess paid by submitting information in Form-XVII to the Assessing Officer giving details of such reduction or stoppage of work.

(b) The Assessing Officer, on receipt of information in Form-XVII from an employer shall make a scrutiny of such information furnished and, if he is satisfied about the correctness of the particulars so furnished, he shall make an order of assessment within a period not exceeding thirty days of receipt of such information.

(c) Following the assessment order made on receipt of Form-XVII as per clause (b), the assessing officer shall, wherever necessary, endorse a copy of the such assessment to the respective Building Workers' Welfare Board, cess collector and to such other persons as he thinks appropriate, for making the refund of excess cess as ordered in the assessment made under clause (b).

(d) The State Building Workers' Welfare Board shall, within thirty days of receipt of the endorsement from the assessing officer under clause (c), refund the amount specified in the order to the employer through electronic payment system in the bank account as per details furnished by the employer for that purpose.

(e) Where the appellate authority has modified the order of assessment reducing the amount of cess, refund shall be made within such time as may be specified in that order or in the manner and time as specified under clause (d).

42. Time limit for payment of cess and rate of interest.— (1) Date of payment of cess shall be the date on which the amount is deposited with the cess collector under clauses (a) and (b) of sub-rule (2) of rule 41, or the date of deduction at source under clause (d) of sub-rule (2) of rule 41, or the date on which the amount has been deposited with the local authority under clause (c) of sub-rule (2) of rule 41, as the case may be.

(2) If any employer fails to pay any amount of cess payable under section 100, within such time as may be specified in the assessment order, such employer shall be liable to pay interest on the amount of cess, to be paid, at the rate of one percent per month or part thereof comprised in the period from the due date until the date of actual payment.

43. Penalty.—(1) An assessing officer, if it appears to him that an employer has not paid the cess within the date as specified in the assessment order or has paid less cess, including the cess deducted at source or paid in advance, shall issue a notice to such employer that it shall be deemed to be in arrears and such assessing officer may, after such inquiry as it deems fit, impose on such employer, a penalty not exceeding such amount of cess:

Provided that before imposing any such penalty, such employer shall be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard and if after such hearing the assessing officer is satisfied that the default was for any good and sufficient reason, no penalty shall be imposed on such employer.

(2) If any penalty is imposed on the employer or the notice for imposing the penalty is withdrawn, as mentioned in sub-rule (1), the assessing officer will pass a speaking order in this regard stating the reasons thereof. A copy of such order shall be endorsed to the employer, cess-collector and to the secretary, Building Workers' Welfare Board.

44. Appeal.— (1) An employer aggrieved by an order of the assessment made under sub-rule (4) of rule 41 or by an order imposing penalty made under rule 43, may file an appeal in Form-XIX against such order, within ninety days of the receipt of such order, to the appellate authority as notified by the State Government in this regard.

(2) Such appeal, inter alia, shall be accompanied by—

(a) the order appealed against;

(b) a certificate from the cess collector to the effect that the amount of cess or penalty or both, as the case may be, relating to such appeal has been deposited;

Provided that the appellate authority may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, waive or reduce the amount to be deposited under rule 43 on application by the appellant.

(c) a non-refundable fee equivalent to one-half percent., but not exceeding rupees twenty five thousand of the amount in dispute or penalty or both, as the case may be, under such appeal;

(d) a statement of points in dispute; and

(e) documentary evidence relied upon.

(3) On receipt of the appeal, the appellate authority may, call details from the assessing officer or his statement on the basis of his assessment order appealed against, as such appellate authority may consider necessary for the disposal of such appeal.

(4) The appellate authority shall give the appellant an opportunity of being heard in the matter and dispose of the appeal as expeditiously as possible but not exceeding sixty days from the date of receipt of such appeal.

(5) On being satisfied on the quantum of cess the appellate authority shall confirm the order of the assessing officer or if in his opinion the assessment was wrong; or on the higher side shall modify the order of assessment or if in his opinion the assessment is on the lower side or if the basis of assessment is wrong, it shall remand the assessment order to the assessing officer along with his observations to rectify the error.

(6) An order remanded back under sub-rule (5) shall be disposed of by the assessing officer within thirty days in view of the observation made by the Appellate Authority:

Provided that, if the amount of cess is proposed to be enhanced the assessee shall be given an opportunity of being heard.

(7) If the appellate authority is of the opinion that the quantum of penalty imposed is on the higher side or not correctly made it shall suitably modify or set aside the order of the assessing officer, as he deems appropriate.

(8) The appeal under this rule shall be disposed of by making a speaking order and a copy of such order shall be sent to each of the appellant, the assessing officer and to the secretary, Building Workers' Welfare Board within five days of the date on which such order is made.

(9) An order in appeal, reducing the amount of cess, shall also ask the Secretary of the concerned Building Workers' Welfare Board to refund the excess cess stating clearly a specified time to the appellant.

- (10) An order in appeal enhancing or reducing the amount of cess or penalty or both, as the case may be, shall also specify the date by which the amount of cess or penalty or both shall be paid or refunded.
- (11) No appeal shall lie against the order of the appellate authority under this rule.

45. Registration of building worker.— (1) Every employer or the contractor shall be responsible to register such building workers eligible under this rule who are on their muster roll on the portal of the State Government or the State Building Workers' Welfare Board or the designated portal of the Central Government, within 30 days of the worker(s) becoming eligible, and such registration shall be seeded with Aadhaar and the Universal Account Number or any other such unique number generated through the designated portal of the Central Government.

(2) It shall be the responsibility of the State Building Workers' Welfare Board to provide a portal with the facility to the employers and contractor to register the eligible building workers on such portal. Further, the State Building Workers' Welfare Board shall also register any other eligible building worker within the geographical area of the State:

Provided that every such building worker has completed eighteen years of age and is less than sixty years of age and has been engaged in building or other construction work for not less than ninety days in the preceding twelve months.

(3) The designated Portal of the Central Government shall have the facility for enabling each of the State Building Workers' Welfare Board or the employer or the contractor of building or other construction work to have access for generating Universal Account Number or any other such unique number in respect of all eligible building workers and such State Board shall share details of the registered building workers with the designated Portal of the Central Government quarterly or at such periodicity as may be decided by the Central Government.

(4) The State Building Workers' Welfare Board or the employer or the contractor may utilise the services of the business correspondents of the Department of Posts or Common Service Centres or e-sewa kendras of the Central Government or the State Government or any such other agency as may be decided by the State Government or State Building Workers' Welfare Board for facilitating the registration, renewal or updation of particulars of eligible building workers.

(5) To facilitate the registration of eligible building workers, the Board referred to in sub-rule (1) may set up camps as may be required in the labour-intensive areas.

(6) Every registered building worker shall be issued a digital identity card bearing his photograph and other details as may be specified by the State Government or the Board referred to in sub-rule (1) which shall be downloadable from the portal of the State Government or such Board.

(7) Every building worker registered with the State Building Workers' Welfare Board, shall be entitled to receive the benefits provided by the Board from its fund during the validity period of such registration.

(8) The delivery of welfare schemes for the building workers may be done electronically using the registration number of the building worker and any cash assistance shall be given through direct benefit transfer only.

(9) In case a building worker moves from one State to another State, then, it shall be the responsibility of the employer or the contractor to obtain the unique registration number from the building worker and effect the requisite changes in respect of such worker on the portal of the State Building Workers' Welfare Board of the destination State within a period of thirty days of such worker joining the muster roll under such employer or contractor, and in case the building worker does not possess such unique registration number then the employer or the contractor shall register such eligible building worker as referred to in sub-rule (1).

(10) Where a building worker moves from one State to another State, and is registered under sub-rule (9), he shall be entitled to get such benefits as are applicable to the other building workers of the destination State from the Building Workers' Welfare Board of that State:

Provided that an eligible building worker on the muster roll of an employer or a contractor in the destination State shall not be denied benefits only because such employer or contractor has failed to update his registration on the portal of the destination State.

(11) Every State Building Workers' Welfare Board shall submit a report annually to the State Government with a copy to the Central Government in the form as may be specified by the Central Government for such purpose.

(12) The State Building Workers' Welfare Board shall provide a mechanism for redress of grievances of building workers including telephone helpline, registration, renewal, updation, portability and delivery of welfare schemes.

46. Benefits of beneficiary.—If any building worker has been a beneficiary for at least three years continuously immediately before attaining the age of sixty years, for the benefit applicable to such worker, the Central Government may formulate such schemes as may be notified by the Central Government under which such worker shall be eligible to get such benefit.

47. Recovery of due and exemption.— (1) For the purpose of recovery of sums due on account of unpaid cess, interest or overdue payment or, penalty under these rules, the assessing officer shall prepare a certificate signed by him, specifying the amount due and send it to the recovery officer of the district concerned who shall proceed to recover from the said employer the amount specified thereunder as if it were an arrear of land revenue or under any other such law prevailing in that State for such purpose.

(2) An assessing officer, for the purposes of section 103, may-

(a) enter any establishment where building or other construction work is going on only with the prior approval of the Secretary, State Building Workers' Welfare Board;

(b) make an inventory of materials, machinery or other articles lying at the workplace;

(c) enquire about the number of workers engaged in various activities;

(d) require the production of any concerned register or any other documents relevant to the assessment of cost of construction or number of workers employed;

(e) seize or take copies of any such records;

(f) make a general assessment of the stage of the construction work of the completed construction work;

(g) take measurement, notes or photographs; and

(h) exercise such other powers considered absolutely necessary for reasonable assessment of cost of construction.

(3) The assessing officer or any Inspector-cum-Facilitator under the Code, having come to know of violation of an obligation to furnish return, furnishing of false information, intentionally or wilfully evading or attempting to evade the payment of cess may make a complaint with evidence pertaining to such complaint to the State Government with a copy to the concerned State Building Workers' Welfare Board in writing.

(4) (a) Any employer or class of employers in a State seeking exemption under section 102 may make an application to the Director General of Labour Welfare, Ministry of Labour and Employment, Government of India, stating the details of works undertaken, name of the corresponding law in force in that State under which he is liable to pay cess for the social security and welfare measure of the construction workers and amount of cess actually paid along with the date of such payment and proof thereof. A copy of such application shall be endorsed to each of the assessing officer and the State Building Workers' Welfare Board concerned.

(b) On receipt of such application, the Central Government may, if it considers necessary, seek a report from the State Government concerned.

(c) On examining the grounds, facts and merits of such application the Central Government may, by notification, issue an order exempting the employer or class of employers, as the case may be, from payment of cess payable under the Code where such cess is already levied and payable under such corresponding law.

(d) Assessment proceedings shall be stopped by the assessing officer for a period of thirty days commencing from the date of the receipt of a copy of the application under clause (a) to him, or till the order of the Central Government under clause (c) is conveyed to an employer or class of employers who made the application under clause (a), whichever is earlier.

CHAPTER VIII

SOCIAL SECURITY FOR UNORGANISED WORKERS, GIG WORKERS OR PLATFORM WORKERS

48. Registration of unorganised workers, gig workers and platform workers.—(1) (a) Every unorganised worker, who has completed sixteen years of age shall be required to be registered under section 113, on the designated Portal of the Central Government.

(b) The eligible unorganised worker shall make an application for registration on a self-declaration basis, electronically, with Aadhaar and such other documents and in such form as specified by the Central Government, through general or special order, for that purpose.

(c) The Central Government, shall provide a facility such as mobile app or any other application facilitating the eligible unorganised workers to register themselves on the designated Portal of the Central Government. In order to avail the facility of self-registration, an unorganised worker, shall be required to establish his identity through Aadhaar and other documents as prescribed by the Central Government through general or special order.

(d) It shall be the responsibility of the appropriate Government to register their specific set of eligible unorganised workers within their geographical area of the State/UT or jurisdiction, as the case may be, on the designated Portal of the Central Government.

(e) On completion of registration, such eligible worker, if not already in possession of a Universal Account Number, shall be issued such a number or any other such unique number through the designated Portal of the Central Government.

(f) Every eligible registered unorganised worker shall be issued a digital identity card bearing his photograph and other details as specified by the Central Government for such purpose, through general or special order, and such digital card shall be downloadable from the designated Portal of the Central Government.

(g) In order to be eligible for any benefit under any scheme framed under the Code for unorganised workers, the appropriate Government may notify specific conditions for eligibility, as it deemed fit, in addition to registration on the designated Portal of the Central Government.

(h) The appropriate Government shall access the information from the designated Portal of the Central Government for delivery of benefits of the social security schemes to the eligible unorganised workers.

(i) The eligible unorganised worker, shall be required to update their particulars such as address, occupation, mobile number, skill or any other particulars from time to time, as may be specified by the appropriate Government and in the absence of such updation, any unorganised worker, may not be eligible to avail benefits of the social security schemes notified under the Code and applicable on him.

(j) The services of business correspondents of the Department of Posts, Common Service Centres or e-sewa kendras of the Central Government or the State Government or any other such agency as may be decided by the appropriate Government may be utilised for facilitating the registration, updation of particulars of, and delivery of welfare schemes for, unorganised workers.

(2) (a) Every gig and platform worker, who has completed sixteen years of age shall be required to be registered with Aadhaar and other documents as prescribed by the Central Government through general or special order, on self-declaration basis under section 113, on a portal designated for the purpose by the Central Government.

(b) Every aggregator shall, within forty five days from the commencement of these rules, share through Application Programming Interface (API) or other electronic modes, the details of gig and platform workers who are engaged with such aggregator on the designated Portal of the Central Government for the generation of a Universal Account Number or any other such unique number, if such worker is not already in possession of such number.

(c) Every aggregator engaging any new gig and platform worker shall register such worker on the designated Portal of the Central Government in real time or daily basis through Application Programming Interface (API) or other electronic modes. Every Aggregator shall also share the exit details of gig and platform worker registered with them on the designated Portal of the Central Government on a real time or daily basis through Application Programming Interface (API) or other electronic modes.

(d) Every eligible registered gig and platform worker shall be issued an identity card, digital or otherwise, bearing his photograph and other details as specified by the Central Government for such purpose; and such digital card shall be downloadable from the designated Portal of the Central Government.

(e) In order to be eligible for any benefit under any scheme framed under the Code for gig and platform workers, the Central Government may notify specific conditions for eligibility through general or special order, in addition to registration on the designated Portal of the Central Government:

Provided that such eligible worker has been engaged as gig and platform worker for not less than ninety days with an aggregator, or in the case of multiple aggregators, not less than one hundred and twenty days, in the last financial year.

Explanation. – For the purposes of this sub-rule, –

- (i) a gig and platform worker will be considered to be engaged with an aggregator for one day, if he has earned income, irrespective of the amount, for such work rendered with the aggregator on that calendar day;
- (ii) in case of working with multiple aggregators, the days of engagement of a gig and platform worker shall be calculated across the aggregators in cumulative manner;
- (iii) if a gig and platform worker is engaged with three aggregators on a particular calendar day, it shall count as three days.

(f) An eligible gig and platform worker shall include all such workers engaged by the aggregator directly or through associate company or holding company or subsidiary company or limited liability partnership or through a third party;

Explanation: For the purposes of this clause,

- (i) ‘associate company’ in relation to another company means a company as defined in clause (6) of section 2 of the Companies Act, 2013(18 of 2013).
- (ii) ‘holding company’ in relation to one or more other companies means a company as defined in clause (46) of section 2 of the Companies Act, 2013(18 of 2013).
- (iii) ‘subsidiary company’ in relation to other company as defined in clause (87) of section 2 of the Companies Act, 2013(18 of 2013).
- (iv) ‘limited liability partnership’ in relation to partnership means a limited liability partnership as defined in clause (n) of section 2 of the Limited Liability Partnership Act, 2008(6 of 2009).

(g) For facilitating updation of particulars of registered gig and platform workers, every aggregator shall share electronically the details of the gig and platform workers engaged with such aggregator, monthly or at such other periodicity and in such form as shall be specified on the designated Portal of the Central Government.

(h) In the absence of such updation, a gig and platform worker, may not be eligible to avail benefits of the social security schemes notified under the Code and applicable to him.

49. Implementation of schemes and refund of contribution.–(1) (a) The Central Government shall designate an officer or an agency, as the authority responsible to collect and expend the contributions from the aggregators.

(b) Such authority may seek any information as may be required from the aggregators for registration of gig and platform workers, formulation of suitable social security schemes under section 114 and implementation thereof.

(c) The contribution collected under section 114 shall be maintained as part of the Social Security Fund in a separate account meant for gig and platform workers as specified in sub-section (2) of section 141.

(2) If any aggregator fails to pay any amount of contribution payable under sub-section (4) of section 114, within such time as may be specified by the Central Government for such purpose, such aggregator shall be liable to pay interest on the amount of contribution, to be paid, at the rate of one per cent. for every month or part of a month comprised in the period from the date on which such payment was due till such amount is actually paid.

(3) (a) Every aggregator shall assess contribution payable under sub-section (4) of section 114 in Form-XX and pay provisional contribution as assessed in the designated account of the Social Security Fund, for the preceding year not later than the 30th June of the current year in which the contribution is payable:

Provided that if the aggregator is making the contribution payable on the basis of five per cent. of the amount paid or payable to gig and platform workers, then, this shall include all such workers engaged with the aggregator directly or through associate company or holding company or subsidiary company or limited liability partnership or through a third party.

(b) After finalisation of the audited statement of the account for the previous financial year as per the relevant provisions of the Income-Tax Act, 2025 (30 of 2025) or the Companies Act, 2013 (18 of 2013) or the Limited Liability Partnership Act, 2008(6 of 2009), each aggregator shall submit a final return in Form-XXI, detailing the provisional payment of contribution made along with the details of outstanding contribution, if any, paid by 31st October, of the current year in which the contribution is payable.

(c) In case of excess contribution, if any, paid by any aggregator, such aggregator shall claim the refund in Form-XXI of such excess amount. The authority designated by the Central Government in this regard shall scrutinize Form-XXI, as submitted by the aggregator and excess amount paid, if any, shall be refunded electronically in the bank account specified in Form-XXI, within a period not exceeding ninety days from the date of receipt of such claim.

(4) Any gig and platform worker registered under section 113 shall cease to be eligible for the benefits of social security schemes, when he attains the age of sixty years or when he is not engaged as gig and platform worker, with any of the aggregators for a period not less than ninety days, or in case of multiple aggregators, for a period not less than one hundred and twenty days in the last financial year.

(5) Every aggregator shall register on the designated Portal or any other portal, as may be specified by the Central Government for such purpose.

CHAPTER IX

(b) in case of the Corporation, as specified in Chapter IV and under this Chapter.

51. Conditions for writing off irrecoverable dues.— (1) Where the Corporation or the National Social Security Board is of the opinion that the amount of contribution, cess, interest and damages due to the Corporation or the National Social Security Board, as the case may be, have become irrecoverable, the Corporation or National Social Security Board or any other officer authorised by it in this behalf may sanction the writing off of the said amount, subject to the following conditions, namely: —

(i) that the concerned establishment has been closed for more than five years and the whereabouts of the employer of such establishment cannot be ascertained, despite all possible efforts;

(ii) that the decree obtained by the Corporation or the National Social Security Board could not be executed successfully for want of sufficient assets of the defaulting employer; or

(iii) that the claim for contribution is not fully met by —

(a) the official liquidator in the event of the factory or establishment having gone into liquidation; or

(b) the Commissioner of payments in the event of unit being nationalised or taken over by the Government.

(2) In case of the Provident Fund, Pension Fund or Insurance Fund, such writing off shall be specified in the Provident Fund Scheme or Pension Scheme or Insurance Scheme, as the case may be.

52. Account and annual report.—(1) The Corporation shall maintain complete and accurate accounts in such form as the Standing Committee thereof may, with the approval of the Central Government, specify from time to time and the books shall be balanced on the thirty-first day of March each year.

(2) The Corporation shall prepare revenue accounts for the financial year ended on the thirty-first March and a balance sheet as on the thirty-first March by the thirty-first of May:

Provided that on the application of the Corporation, the Central Government may extend the said date by a period not exceeding thirty days:

Provided further that the Corporation may, and if so required by the Central Government shall, cause to be prepared the revenue accounts and the balance sheet for any other period or as on any other date.

(3) The annual accounts shall be set out and produced before the Comptroller and Auditor General of India for scrutiny on or before the fifteenth of June of each year following the close of the financial year to which they relate:

Provided that on the application of the Corporation, the Central Government may extend the said date by a period not exceeding thirty days.

(4) The Corporation shall submit all accounts to the Comptroller and Auditor General of India as required by him and the Comptroller and Auditor General of India may —

(i) by written notice, require the production before him or before any officer subordinate to him, of any document which he may consider necessary for the proper conduct of his audit;

(ii) by written notice, require any person accountable for or having the custody or control of, any such documents, to appear in person before him or before any officer subordinate to him; and

(iii) require any person so appearing before him or before any officer subordinate to him to make and sign a declaration with respect to such document or to answer any question or prepare and submit any statement desired by him or such officer.

(5) The report of the Comptroller and Auditor General of India on the annual accounts shall be submitted to the Corporation on such date and in such form as the Central Government may specify in this behalf and in the report it shall be stated whether in their opinion the balance sheet is a full and fair balance sheet containing all necessary particulars and properly drawn up so as to exhibit a true and correct view of the state of the Corporation's affairs and in case they have called for any explanation or information from the Corporation or any of its officers whether it has been given and whether it is satisfactory or not.

(6)(a) The annual report on the work and activities of the Corporation (excluding the unaudited accounts for the year incorporated therein) shall be considered by the Standing Committee thereof and shall be placed for adoption at a meeting of the Corporation to be held before the tenth of December following the close of the said financial year.

(b) The annual accounts relating to a financial year duly authenticated by the Financial Commissioner of the Corporation and the Director General and approved by the Standing Committee of the Corporation shall be submitted for audit to the Comptroller and Auditor General of India and the audited accounts together with the report of the Comptroller and Auditor General of India thereon shall be placed for adoption at a meeting of the Corporation to be held before the tenth of December following the close of the said financial year:

Provided that the report of the Comptroller and Auditor General of India shall be received by the twentieth of November, following the year to which it pertains.

(7) The annual accounts together with the report of the Comptroller and Auditor General of India thereon and the annual report on the work and activities of the Corporation as adopted by the Corporation shall be authenticated by affixing the common seal of the Corporation and four copies thereof, together with the comments of the Corporation on the report of the Comptroller and Auditor General shall be submitted to the Central Government not later than the twentieth of December following the close of the financial year concerned for being placed before the Parliament:

Provided that if the report of the Comptroller and Auditor General of India is not received by the twentieth of November following the financial year to which it pertains, the annual accounts together with the report of the Comptroller and Auditor General of India thereon shall be submitted to the Central Government separately from the annual report on the work and activities of the Corporation.

(8) The cost of audit shall be paid by the Corporation by such date as may be specified by the Central Government.

(9)(a) The auditors shall submit to the Corporation and the Central Government a separate statement, if necessary, in regard to —

(i) any material impropriety or irregularity which he may observe in the expenditure, or in the recovery of money due to, or in the accounts of the Corporation; or

(ii) any loss or waste of money or other property owned by or vested in the Corporation which has been caused by neglect or misconduct, with the names of the persons who in their opinion are directly or indirectly responsible for such loss or waste.

(b) The Standing Committee shall forthwith remedy any defect or irregularity that may be pointed out by the auditors and shall report to the Central Government the action taken by it thereon within a period of ninety days of the receipt of the report of the auditors:

Provided that if there is a difference of opinion between the Standing Committee and the auditors, or if the Standing Committee does not remedy any defect or irregularity within a reasonable period, the Central Government may, and on a reference specifically made therefor, shall pass such orders thereon as it thinks fit and the Standing Committee shall thereafter take action in accordance therewith within such time as may be specified by the Central Government.

(10) (a) The Standing Committee or any authority authorised by it in this behalf may after giving the person concerned an opportunity to submit an explanation, and after considering any such explanation, disallow any item of account contrary to the provisions of the Code or of the Rules or Regulations made thereunder, and surcharge the same on the person making or authorising the making of payment of such account and shall charge against any person accounting, the amount of any deficiency or loss incurred by the negligence or misconduct of that person, or of any sum which ought to have been but is not brought into account by that person, and shall in every such case certify the amount due from such person:

Provided that no certificate made by the authority authorised by the Standing Committee shall have effect unless it is approved by the Standing Committee.

(b) The Standing Committee shall state in writing its reasons for every disallowance, surcharge or charge made or approved by it and shall serve a certificate of the amount due and a copy of the reasons for its decision on the person against whom the certificate is made and shall also furnish copies thereof to the Central Government.

(c) Any person aggrieved by a certificate made under sub-rule (10) may, within one month from the date of the service of certificate on him under clause (b) sub-rule (10), file an application to the Central Government for setting aside or modifying the disallowance, surcharge or charge in respect of which the certificate was made.

(d) On receipt of an application under clause (c) or on its own motion, the Central Government may, after making such inquiry as may be necessary, pass such order as it thinks fit either confirming, modifying or setting aside the disallowance, surcharge or charge in respect of which the certificate was made, and the Standing Committee shall thereupon take action in accordance with such order within such time as may be specified by the Central Government.

(e) The Central Government may by order direct that all further action under the certificate made under sub-rule (10) shall be stayed until the disposal of the matter pending before it under clause (d).

(11) (a) Every sum certified to be due from any person by the Standing Committee or if the certificate has been modified by the Central Government, the sum shown to be due from such person in the modified certificate, shall be paid by such person to the Corporation within three months after he has been served with the certificate of the Standing Committee ; or within such longer period as may be allowed by the Central Government; and any such sum, if not so paid, shall be recovered as arrears of land revenue.

(b) Any sum or part of a sum so paid or recovered, the certificate in respect of which is set aside or modified, shall, as the case may require, be wholly or partly refunded to the person who paid it.

(12) The Corporation shall establish, maintain and contribute to a Provident Fund called the Employees' State Insurance Corporation Provident Fund (hereinafter referred to as the Provident Fund) in respect of its employees other than those whose services are placed at the disposal of the Corporation by the Central Government or State Government.

(13) The Provident Fund shall be administered by the Standing Committee of the Corporation or by any other Committee approved by it for the purpose and subject to such conditions as it may deem fit to impose.

(14) The Corporation may make regulations under clause (1) of section 157 of the Code to provide for all other matters incidental to or necessary for the Provident Fund.

(15) Where an Insured Person is convicted under clause (o) of section 133, he shall not be entitled to any cash benefit admissible under Chapter IV of the Code for a period of three months for first conviction and six months for each subsequent conviction from the date of receipt of judgment of the court in the concerned office of the Corporation.

(2) Money transmitted by one competent authority to another in accordance with sub-section (3) of section 92 shall be transmitted either by remittance receipt or by e-transfer or by net banking or by Demand Draft, as the competent authority transmitting the money may direct.

59. Form, manner and fee for application for claim or settlement under sub-section (3) of section 93.- (1) The applicant may send any application of the nature referred to in section 93 to the competent authority by speed post (with registration) or electronically or may be presented to him or to any of his subordinates authorised by him in this behalf, and, if so sent or presented, shall, unless the competent authority otherwise directs, be made in duplicate in Form-XXVII, if any, and shall be signed by the applicant.

(2) There shall be appended to every such application a certificate in Form-XXVIII, which shall be signed by the applicant to the effect that the statement of facts contained in the application is to the best of his knowledge and belief, accurate.

(3) When the application for relief is based upon a document, the document shall be appended to the application.

60. Rules to give effect to arrangements with other countries for transfer of money paid as compensation under section 159.-(1) When any sum is transmitted by any competent authority in India to any other competent authority in accordance with these rules by remittance transfer receipt or by e-transfer or by net banking or by demand draft, the competent authority which transmits the sum may, deduct the costs of such transmission from the sum so transmitted.

(2) When the whole or any part of a lump sum deposited with a competent authority for payment as compensation under the Code is payable to any person or persons residing or about to reside in any other country, the competent authority may order the transfer to that country of the sum so payable.

(3) When the competent authority has ordered the transfer of any sum under sub-rule (2), he shall cause to be prepared and shall certify under his hand a memorandum containing a brief statement of the facts of the case, of the orders passed upon it and of the name and address of each person to whom payment is to be made.

(4) If the competent authority is not himself the Authorised Officer he shall forward the memorandum in duplicate to the Authorised Officer and may either remit the sum to be transferred to the Authorised Officer or retain it and dispose of it in accordance with the directions of the Authorised Officer.

(5) If the competent authority is himself the Authorised Officer, he shall proceed as provided in sub-rule (6).

(6) The Authorised Officer, after satisfying himself that the memorandum is complete, shall forward it and remit or cause to be remitted the sum to which it relates by such means of safe transmission as he may consider convenient to the authority appointed in this behalf for the country to which the sum is to be transferred, or if no such authority has been appointed, to such authority as the State Government may, by general or special order, direct, and shall at the same time request the authority addressed—

(a) to arrange for payment to be made in accordance with the directions contained in the memorandum; and

(b) to furnish him with a report of the action taken upon the memorandum and return any sum the payment of which is for any reason impossible.

(7) (a) The Authorised Officer shall, if he is not the competent authority with whom the matter originated, forward to such competent authority a copy of any report received in response to a request made under sub-rule (6).

(b) Any sum returned in accordance with sub-rule (6) shall be disposed of in accordance with the Code.

(8) (a) The Authorised Officer shall be the proper authority to receive moneys from transferring authorities.

(b) If any competent authority or other Government servant, not being the Authorised Officer, receives any sum from a transferring authority he shall either forward such sum, together with any papers relating thereto, to the Authorised Officer for disposal or obtain the instructions of the Authorised Officer as to the disposal of the sum and papers and act in accordance with his instructions.

(9) The Authorised Officer may himself dispose of any sum or part of any sum which he receives or of which he assumes control under sub-rule (8) or may send it or any part of it for disposal to such competent authority or competent authorities as he considers proper.

(10) All sums received from a transferring authority shall be disposed of as far as possible in accordance with the provisions of the Code and the rules made there under:

Provided that the directions, if any, received from the transferring authority as to the manner in which the sum should be administered shall be complied with.

(11)(a) The Authorised Officer shall forward to the transferring authority a report showing how the sum received from him has been disposed of.

(b) Any competent authority, not being the Authorised Officer who has disposed of any part of the sum, shall make a report in duplicate as to the disposal of that part to the Authorised Officer, and, if the sum was received by him from another such competent authority in accordance with section 92 of the Code, shall forward his report through that competent authority.

(12) Any part of the sum received from the transferring authority which shall have remained undisbursed after the completion of the proceedings shall be returned to the transferring authority by, or under the direction of the Authorised Officer.

61. Proceedings after transfer of matters. - The competent authority under clause (b) or clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 92 may initiate the proceedings afresh or he may continue the previous proceedings initiated under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 91 as if the same or any of its part had been taken before him if he is satisfied that the interest of the parties shall not thereby be prejudiced.

62. Transfer of records or money.-(1) If any matter under the Code is required to be processed before or by a competent authority other than the competent authority having jurisdiction over the area in which the accident took place the former may for the proper disposal of the matter call for in Form-XXX a detailed report including transfer of any records or money remaining with the latter and on receipt of such a request he shall comply with the same:

Provided that if any further enquiry is necessary in the area in which the accident took place for framing of issues or for determining the amount of compensation, the competent authority, before whom the application has been filed, may require the competent authority of the area in which the accident took place to conduct such enquiries and to serve such notices or orders as may be necessary for the purpose of such enquiries.

(2) Money deposited with one competent authority under section 81 shall be transmitted to another competent authority either by remittance transfer receipt or by e-transfer or by net banking or by demand draft.

63. Every employer shall at the time of employment of an employee, inform the employee of his right to compensation under the Code, in writing and by electronic means, in English or Hindi or in the official language of the area of employment, which is known to the employee.

(g) the establishment seeking exemption should have a positive net worth during each of the last three years before the date of application;

(h) the establishment must have seeded the Aadhaar number of each member in the respective member's account for the purposes of Chapter III or that of each of insured person and his or her family members for the purposes of Chapter IV, as the case may be, of the Code in the respective database; and

(i) for the purposes of Chapter III of the Code, the establishment shall provide facilities for online claim settlement and has an online portal for grievance resolution to provide linkages with that of Employees' Provident Fund Organisation within ninety days of grant of exemption.

(2) The notification granting exemption under section 143 shall be issued so as to take effect from the date of the notification and shall contain the other terms and conditions to be complied with by the establishment and /or the employer, as the case may be.

(3) (a) The application for extension of exemption under section 143 shall be made on specified portal, at least six months before expiry of exemption.

(b) The exemption granted to an establishment from the provisions of Chapter IV shall be extendable by the appropriate Government for a period of five years at a time, subject to the condition that the establishment continues to fulfil the relevant conditions in specified sub-rule (1) of rule 65 except that in clause (d) of sub-rule (1).

(c) No exemption under the provisions of Chapter IV shall be extended without prior consultation of the Corporation.

(d) The Corporation shall submit its views to the appropriate Government within three months of receipt of application failing which the appropriate Government shall decide on the extension of exemption, as it may deem fit.

(e) The exemption granted in respect of the Provident Fund Scheme or the Pension Scheme or the Insurance Scheme, as the case may be, may be extended for such period and on such terms and conditions as may be specified in the respective Schemes.

66. Time limit for Central Board or Corporation to provide views on application for exemption.

—The Central Board or the Corporation, as the case may be, shall forward its views on the application seeking exemption under section 143 to the appropriate Government within six months of receipt of proposal for exemption. If the Central Board or the Corporation, as the case may be, is unable to provide its views within the said period, the appropriate Government may extend the time limit or take action on the application for exemption, as it may deem fit.

67. Terms and conditions for compliance of exempted establishment.—(1) The establishment to which exemption has been granted from the provisions of Chapter IV of the Code –

(a) shall maintain such records regarding the exempted employees and submit such returns and other information to the Corporation as may be specified in the regulations made under section 157; and

(b) in case of change of legal status of an establishment which has been granted exemption under section 143, due to merger, demerger, acquisition, sale, amalgamation, formation into a subsidiary, whether wholly owned or not, etc., the exemption shall be deemed to be cancelled and the establishment shall be required to apply afresh for exemption to the appropriate Government.

(2) For the purposes of Chapter III, the establishment and/or employer, after the grant of exemption, shall comply with all such terms and conditions as may be specified in the Provident Fund Scheme or the Pension Scheme or the Insurance Scheme, as the case may be, framed under section 15.

68. Terms and conditions for management of trust.—(1) A Board of Trustees shall be established for the management of the Provident Fund or the Pension Fund according to such directions as may be given by the Central Government or the Central Provident Fund Commissioner, as the case may be, from time to time.

(2) The Board of Trustees shall consist of such equal number of representatives each of the employers and employees as may be specified in the Provident Fund Scheme or the Pension Scheme, as the case may be.

(3) The employer of such exempted establishment shall be the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees and the Chairperson may exercise a casting vote in the event of equality of votes and arm's length principles shall be maintained by the Chairperson in all meetings of the Board of Trustees.

(4) The Board of Trustees shall meet at least once in every three months and shall function in the accordance with the guidelines that may be issued from time to time by the Central Government or the Central Provident Fund Commissioner or any officer authorised by him.

(5) The terms and conditions, including the tenure of office of the Trustees, the procedure and manner for election or nomination of the representatives of the employees and of employers to the Board of Trustees, disqualification and cessation of trusteeship, re-election or re-nomination of trustees, the quorum at the meeting of the Board, records to be kept of the transaction of business and all such other matters and conditions for the management of the Trust shall be as provided for in the Provident Fund Scheme or the Pension Scheme, as the case may be.

(6) In case of any dispute or doubt on-

(a) the interpretation of any provision of this rule, such matter shall be referred to the Central Government; and

(b) any clarifications on the grant of such exemption which do not relate to this rule, shall be referred to the Central Provident Fund Commissioner or any other officer of the Employees' Provident Fund Organization authorised by him; and the interpretation of the Central Government or the clarification of the Central Provident Fund Commissioner or such officers, as the case may be, on such dispute or doubt shall be binding for the disposal of such matter so referred.

69. Manner of determining misuse of any benefit by an establishment or by any other person under section 148.-On the recommendations of the authority or the competent authority or Social Security Organisation, if the Central Government is satisfied that any establishment or any person has misused any benefit provided under the Code or these rules, the Central Government may by notification, deprive such establishments or such person, as the case may be, from such benefit for such time as may be specified in the notification:

Provided that no such order shall be passed unless an opportunity of being heard is given to such establishment or such person, as the case may be.

FORM – XIV

[See rule 40(4)]

(Abstract for the Maternity Benefit, and the rules made under the Code on Social Security, 2020).

1. No employer shall knowingly employ a woman during the six weeks immediately following the day of her delivery/miscarriage/Medical termination of pregnancy and no woman shall work in any establishment during the said period.

2. No pregnant woman shall, on a request being made by her in this behalf, be required by her employer to do during the period of one month immediately preceding the period of six weeks before the date of her expected delivery and also for any period during this period of six weeks for which she does not avail of leave of absence, any work which is of an arduous nature or which involves long hours of standing, or which in way is likely to interfere with her pregnancy or the normal development of the foetus, or is likely to cause her miscarriage or otherwise to adversely affect her health.

3. (a) Subject to the provisions of the Code, every woman who has actually worked in an establishment of the employer from whom she claims maternity benefit for a period of not less than eighty days, including the days during which she was laid off, shall be entitled to, and her employer shall be liable for, the payment of maternity benefit at the rate of her average daily wages, or the minimum rate of wage fixed or revised under the Code on Wages, 2019 (29 of 2019) or two hundred rupees a day, whichever is higher, for the period of her actual absence not exceeding six weeks immediately preceding the day of delivery and the remaining period immediately following that day:

Provided that where a woman dies during the period for which maternity benefit is payable, to her, the benefit shall be payable only for the days up to and including the day of her death. However, where the woman having been delivered of a child, dies during her delivery or during the remaining period of maternity benefit leaving behind in either case the child, the employer shall be liable for the payment of maternity benefit for the entire period of maternity benefit following the day of her delivery but if the child also dies during the said period, then, for the days up to and including the day of the death of the child.

(b) The amount of maternity benefit for the period preceding the date of her expected delivery shall be paid in advance by the employer to the woman on production of a certificate in Form-X stating that she is pregnant and is expected to be delivered of a child within six weeks of the date of production of the certificate, and the amount due for the subsequent period shall be paid by the employer to the woman within forty-eight hours of production of the certificate in Form-X stating that she has been delivered of a child or production of a certified extract from a Birth Register maintained under the provisions of any law for the time being in force.

4. (a) Any woman employed in an establishment and entitled to maternity benefit under the provisions of the Code may give notice in writing in Form-XI to her employer, stating that her maternity benefit and any other amount to which she may be entitled under the Code may be paid to her or to such person as she may nominate in the notice and that she will not work in any establishment during the period for which she receives maternity benefit.

(b) In the case of a woman who is pregnant, such notice shall state the date from which she will be absent from work, not being a date earlier than six weeks from the date of her expected delivery.

(c) Any woman who has not given the notice when she was pregnant may give such notice as soon as possible after the delivery.

(d) On receipt of the notice, the employer shall permit such woman to absent herself from establishment until the expiry of the remaining period of maternity benefit after the day of her delivery.

5. (a) Every woman entitled to maternity benefit under the Code shall also be entitled to receive from her employer a medical bonus of rupees three thousand and five hundred, if no pre-natal, confinement and post-natal care is provided for by the employer free of charge. The medical bonus shall be paid along with the second installment of the maternity benefit.

(b) In case of miscarriage/medical termination of pregnancy, a woman shall, on production of a certificate in Form-X be entitled to leave with wages at the rate of maternity benefit, for a period of six weeks immediately following the day of her miscarriage. The wages shall be paid within 48 hours of production of the certificate in Form-X.

(c) A woman suffering from illness arising out of pregnancy, delivery, premature birth of child or miscarriage/ medical termination of pregnancy or tubectomy operation shall, on production of a certificate in Form-X, be entitled, in addition to the period of absence allowed to her on account of maternity or miscarriage/ medical termination of pregnancy or tubectomy operation, as the case may be, to leave with wages at the rate of maternity benefit for a maximum period of one month. The wages for the leave period shall be paid within 48 hours of the expiry of that period.

6. Every woman delivered of a child who returns to duty after such delivery shall, in addition to the interval for rest allowed to her, be allowed in the course of her daily work two breaks of 15 minutes' duration for nursing the child until the child attains the age of fifteen months. An extra sufficient period, depending upon the distance to be covered, shall be allowed for the purpose of the journey to and from the creche or the place where the children are left by women while on duty, provided that such extra period shall be upto 15 minutes.

7. (1) When a woman absents herself from work in accordance with the provisions of the Code, it shall be unlawful for her employer to discharge or dismiss her during or on account of such absence or to give notice of discharge or dismissal on such a day that the notice will expire during such absence, or to vary to her disadvantage any of the conditions of her service.

(2) (a) The discharge or dismissal of a woman at any time during her pregnancy, if the woman but for which discharge or dismissal would have been entitled to maternity benefit or medical bonus shall not have the effect of depriving her of the maternity benefit or medical bonus:

Provided that where the dismissal is for one or more of the following acts, the employer may, by order in writing communicate to the woman, deprive her of the maternity benefit or medical bonus or both-

- (i) wilful destruction of employer's goods or property;
- (ii) assaulting any superior or co-employee at the place of work;
- (iii) criminal offence involving moral turpitude resulting in conviction in a Court of law;
- (iv) theft, fraud, or dishonesty in connection with the employer's business or property; and
- (v) wilful non-observance of safety measures or rules on the subject or wilful interference with safety devices or with fire-fighting equipment.

(b) Any woman deprived of maternity benefit or medical bonus or both, may within sixty days from the date on which the order of such deprivation is communicated to her, appeal in Form-XII to the Competent Authority and his decision on such appeal whether the woman should or should not be deprived of maternity benefit or medical bonus or both, shall be final.

8. If a woman works in any establishment after she has been permitted by her employer to absent herself under the provisions of the Code, she shall forfeit her claim to the maternity benefit for such period.

9. (1) Any woman claiming the maternity benefit or any other amount to which she is entitled under the Code and any person claiming that payment due has been improperly withheld may make complaint to the Inspector-cum-Facilitators in writing in Form-XIII-A.

(2) The Inspector-cum-Facilitators may, on his own motion or on receipt of a complaint in Form-XIII-A, make an inquiry or cause an enquiry to be made and if satisfied that payment has been wrongfully withheld, may direct the payment to be made in accordance with his orders.

(3) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Inspector-cum-Facilitator may, within, thirty days from the date on which such decision is communicated to such person, appeal in Form-XIII-B to the Authority prescribed by the appropriate Government.

(4)The decision of Authority where an appeal has been preferred to him or of the Inspector-cum-Facilitator where no such appeal has been preferred, shall be final.

10. (a)The employer shall supply to every woman employed by him at her request free of cost copies of Forms X, XI, XII, XIII-A and XIII-B.

(b)The failure to submit a notice, appeal or complaint in the prescribed form shall not affect the right of a woman entitled to receive maternity benefit or any other amount due under the Code. Where a notice, appeal or complaint has been received in a form other than the prescribed form, the authority concerned shall within fifteen days of the receipt of such notice, appeal or complaint, require the woman to submit the notice, appeal or complaint, as the case may be in the prescribed form.

11. (a) (1) The employer of the establishment in which women are employed shall prepare and maintain a register of women employees in Form-XXII and shall enter therein particulars of all women employees in the establishment.

(2) All entries in the register of women employees shall be made in ink and maintained up-to-date and it shall always be available for inspection by the Inspector-cum-Facilitator during working hours.

(b)The employer to which the Code applies, on or before the 28th/29th day of February in each year, upload a unified annual return in Form-XXIII online on the web portal of the Central Government in the Ministry of Labour and Employment, giving information as to the particulars specified, in respect of the preceding year:

Provided that during inspection, the Inspector-cum-Facilitator may require the production of accounts, books, register and other documents maintained in electronic form or otherwise.

Explanation.– The expression “electronic form” shall have the same meaning as assigned to it in clause (r) of section 2 of the Information Technology Act, 2000 (21 of 2000).
