CHAPTER II

MINIMUM WAGES

3. Manner of calculating minimum rate of wages.—(1) For the purposes of sub-section (5) of section 6, the minimum rate of wages shall be fixed by the day basis keeping in view the criteria which shall be separately specified by the Central Government by special or general order:

Provided that the Central Government shall not fix the minimum wages of the Central Government employees under this Code.

(2) Where the rate of wages for a day is fixed, such amount shall be divided by eight for fixing the rate of wages for an hour and multiplied by twenty six for fixing the rate of wages for a month and in such division and multiplication the factors of one-half and more than one-half shall be rounded as next figure and the factors less than one-half shall be ignored.

(3) In case there is less than six days working week, the hourly rate of minimum wages so calculated shall be used to derive the minimum wages for the day.

4. Interval for revision of variable dearness allowance.- The cost of living allowance and the cash value of the concession in respect of essential commodities at concession rate shall be computed once before 1st April and then before 1st October in every year to revise the variable dearness allowance payable to the employees on the minimum wages considering the Average Consumer Price Index Number for Industrial Workers published by the Labour Bureau, Ministry of Labour and Employment, Government of India.

5. Hours of work for normal working day. - (1) The number of hours of work which shall constitute normal working day for an employee whose wage period is on a daily basis shall be eight hours and interval for rest shall be in accordance with notification issued in this regard under Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020 (37 of 2020).

(2) The number of hours of work which shall constitute a normal working day for an employee whose wage period is other than on a daily basis shall be so fixed that the total number of weekly working hours shall not exceed forty-eight hours.

6. Weekly day of rest.— (1) Subject to the provisions of this rule, an employee shall be allowed rest for one day in every week (hereinafter referred to as “the rest day”), in case of six-day working week which shall ordinarily be a Sunday and in case of less than six-days working week, the rest day shall include Saturday and Sunday, however, the employer may fix any other day of the week as the rest day for any employee or class of employees:

Provided that in a six-days working week or less than six days working week, as the case may be, the remaining days of the week shall be paid rest days for such employees:

Provided further that an employee shall be entitled for the rest day under this sub-rule, if he has worked under the same employer in case of six-days working week for a continuous period of not less than six days and in case of less than six-days working week for a continuous period of the stipulated number of working days, as the case may be:

Provided also that the employee shall be informed of the day fixed as the rest day and of any subsequent change in the rest day before the change is effected, by display of a notice to that effect at a conspicuous place in the place of employment or electronically.

Explanation.- For the purpose of computation of the continuous period of not less than six days or the stipulated number of days worked in a week specified in the second proviso to this sub-rule,

- (a) any day on which an employee is required to attend for work but is given only an allowance for attendance and is not provided with work;
- (b) any day on which an employee is laid off on payment of compensation under the Industrial Relations Code, 2020 (35 of 2020), and;
- (c) any leave or holiday, with or without pay, granted by the employer to an employee in the period of six days or during the stipulated number of working days of a week, as the case may be, immediately preceding the rest days.

(2) An employee shall not be required or allowed to work on the rest day unless he is allowed a substituted rest day on one of the working days in a week immediately before or after the rest day:

Provided that no substitution shall be made, which shall result in the employee working for more than ten days consecutively without a rest day.

(3) Where any employee works on a rest day and has been given a substituted rest day on any working days before or after the rest day, the rest day shall, for the purposes of calculating the weekly hours of work, be included in the week in which the substituted rest day occurs.

(4) An employee shall be granted for rest day, wages calculated at the rate applicable to the previous working day; where he works on the rest day and has been given a substituted rest day, then, he shall be paid wages for the rest day on which he worked, at the overtime rate and wages for the substituted rest day at the rate applicable to the previous working day:

Provided that in case of six-days working week where—

(i) the minimum rate of wages of the employee as notified under the Code has been worked out by dividing the minimum monthly rate of wages by twenty-six; or

(ii) the actual daily rate of wages of the employee has been worked out by dividing the monthly rate of wages by twenty-six and such actual daily rate of wages is not less than the notified minimum daily rate of wages of the employee, then, no wages for the rest day shall be payable; and

(iii) the employee works on the rest day and has been given a substituted rest day, then, the employee shall be paid, only for the rest day on which he worked, an amount equal to the wages payable at the overtime rate, which shall not be less than twice the normal rate of wages, and, in case any dispute arises whether the daily rate of wages has been worked out in accordance with the provisions of this proviso, the Chief Labour Commissioner (Central) or the Deputy Chief Labour Commissioner (Central) having jurisdiction may, on application made in this behalf, decide the same, after giving an opportunity to the parties concerned to make written representations:

Provided further that in case of an employee governed by a piece-rate system, the employee shall be paid wages for the rest day on which he works, at the overtime rate and wages for the substituted rest day at the rate applicable to the previous working day.

Explanation.— For the purpose of this sub-rule, the words ‘previous working day’ means the last day on which the employee has worked, which precedes the rest day or the substituted rest day, as the case may be; and where the substituted rest day falls on a day immediately after the rest day, the previous working day means the last day on which the employee has worked, which precedes the rest day.

(5) The provisions of this rule shall not operate to the prejudice of more favourable terms, if any, to which an employee may be, entitled under any other law or under the terms of any award, agreement or contract of service, and in such a case, the employee shall be entitled only to more favorable terms.

Explanation.— For the purposes of this rule, the expression ‘week’ shall mean a period of seven days beginning at midnight on Saturday night.

7. Night shifts.—Where an employee works on a shift which extends beyond midnight, then, ——

- (i) a rest day for the whole day for the purposes of rule 6 shall, in this case means a period of twenty-four consecutive hours beginning from the time when his shift ends; and
- (ii) the following day in such a case shall be deemed to be the period of twenty-four hours beginning from the time when such shift ends and the hours after midnight during which such employee was engaged in work shall be counted towards the previous day.

8. Extent and conditions of working hours for certain categories of employees.- The number of working hours for certain categories of employees under sub-section (2) of section 13 may exceed the normal working hours, specified in rule 5:

Provided that the overtime of these categories of employees shall be as per section 14.

9. Longer wage period. - The longer wage period for the purposes of minimum rate of wages under section 14 shall be by the month.

CHAPTER III

FLOOR WAGES

10. Manner of fixing floor wage.- (1) For fixing the floor wage, the Central Government may consult the Board, taking into account the minimum living standard including the food, clothing, housing and any other factors considered appropriate by the Central Government from time to time.

(2) The consultation under sub-rule (1) may be circulated to all the State Governments for further consultation and their comments.

(3) The consultation of the Board and the views of the State Governments received may be considered before fixing the floor wage under sub-rule (1).

(4) The Central Government may revise the floor wage fixed under sub-rule (1) ordinarily at an interval not exceeding five years and undertake adjustment for variations in the cost of living periodically in consultation with the Board and the State Governments.

CHAPTER IV

PAYMENT OF WAGES

11. Payment of wages to contractual employee.- Where the employees are employed in an establishment through a contractor, the company or firm or association or any other person who is the proprietor of the establishment shall pay to the contractor, the amount payable in respect of the wages of employees in accordance with the provisions of the Code.

Explanation: -For the purpose of this rule, the expression “firm” shall have the meaning as assigned to it in the Indian Partnership Act, 1932 (9 of 1932).

12. Payment of wages for less than normal working day.— An employee shall not be entitled to receive wages for a full normal working day under section 10, in case the employee had agreed to work on part time basis, as per the terms of the employment or not entitled to receive such wage under any other labour law for the time being in force.

13. Recovery of deductions.— As per sub-section (4) of section 18, where the total deductions authorised under sub-section (2) of section 18 exceed fifty per cent. of the wages of an employee, the excess shall be carried forward and recovered from the wages of succeeding wage period, in instalments so that the recovery in any month shall not exceed the fifty per cent. of the wages of the employee in that month.

14. Authority for approving acts and omissions.— The Deputy Chief Labour Commissioner (Central) having jurisdiction over the place of work of the employee concerned shall be the authority for approving acts and omissions for the purposes of sub-section (1) of section 19.

15. Manner of exhibiting notice specifying acts and omissions.— A notice referred to in sub-section (2) of section 19 shall be displayed in physical form or electronically in Hindi, English and local language at the conspicuous place in the premises of the work place in which the employment is carried on and a copy of the notice shall be sent electronically or by speed post to the Inspector-cum-Facilitator having jurisdiction.

16. Procedure for imposing fines.— (1) As per sub-section (3) of section 19, the employer shall give intimation electronically or in writing to the employee concerned specifying therein the particulars of acts and omissions done by the employee, warranting the imposition of fine, for showing cause within seven days.

(2) On establishment of charges, fine shall be imposed on the delinquent employee.

(3) Wherein no reply is received from the employee within the scheduled period, fine shall be imposed and the same shall be intimated to the employee within fifteen days of the imposition of such fine.

17. Intimation of deduction for absence from duty.—(1) When an employer intends to make any deduction in pursuance of the proviso to sub-section (2) of section 20, the employer shall intimate electronically or in writing to the employee concerned regarding their intention of making such deduction seeking their reply within a period of seven days and on establishment of charges, deduction shall be made from the wages of the employee in accordance with sub- section (3) of section 18.

(2) If no reply is received from the employee concerned within seven days, the employer shall make such deduction from the wages and the same shall be intimated to the employee within fifteen days of the date of such deduction.

18. Procedure for deduction for damage or loss.—(1) Any employer intending to make deduction for damages or loss under sub-section (1) of section 21 from the wages of an employee, shall give the employee an opportunity to submit explanation within a period of seven days, showing cause, the value of the damage caused or loss of goods expressly entrusted to the employee.

(2) On establishment of the charges, deductions shall be made from the wages of the employee in accordance with sub-section (3) of section 18.

(3) In case no reply is received from the employee concerned within seven days, the employer shall make such deduction from the wage of the employee concerned and the same shall be intimated to the employee within fifteen days of the date of such deduction.

19. Conditions regarding recovery of advance:—The recovery of,—

- (i) advances of money given to an employee after the employment begins under clause (b) of section 23; or
- (ii) advances of wages to an employee not already earned under clause (c) of section 23, as the case may be, shall be made by the employer from the wages of the concerned employee in instalments determined by the employer, so as any or all instalments in a wage period, shall not exceed fifty per cent of the wages of the employee subject to the ceiling specified in rule 13 in that wage period and the particulars of such recovery shall be recorded in the register maintained in Form-IV.

20. Deduction for recovery of loans:— As per section 24, deductions for recovery of loans granted and the interest due in respect thereof shall be as per extant instructions or guidelines of the Central Government regulating the extent to which such loans may be granted and the rate of interest that shall be payable thereon.

CHAPTER V

PAYMENT OF BONUS

21. Payment of bonus to contractual employee.- Where in an establishment, the employees are employed through a contractor and the contractor fails to pay the bonus under section 26, the company or firm or association or other person as referred to in the proviso to section 43 shall, on the written information of such failure given by the employees or any registered trade union or unions of which the employees are members and on confirming such failure, pay minimum bonus to the employees.

22. Calculation for sixth accounting year:— For the sixth accounting year, set on or set off, as the case may be, shall be made under clause (i) of sub-section (7) of section 26, in the manner illustrated in Appendix A, taking into account the excess or deficiency, if any, as the case may be, of the allocable surplus set on or set off, in respect of the fifth and sixth accounting years.

23. Calculation for seventh accounting year:— For the seventh accounting year, set on or set off, as the case may be, shall be made under clause (ii) of sub-section (7) of section 26, in the manner illustrated in Appendix A, taking into account the excess or deficiency, if any, as the case may be, of the allocable surplus set on or set off in respect of the fifth, sixth and seventh accounting years.

24. Computation of gross profits for banking company:— The gross profits derived by an employer from an establishment in respect of the accounting year shall in the case of banking company under clause (a) of section 32, be calculated in the manner specified in Appendix B.

25. Computation of gross profits for other than banking company:— The gross profits derived by an employer from an establishment in respect of the accounting year shall, in a case other than banking company under clause (b) of section 32, be calculated in the manner specified in Appendix C.

26. Deduction of further sums from gross profit:— The further sums specified in respect of the employer in Appendix D shall be deducted from the gross profit as prior charges under clause (c) of section 34.

27. Manner of carrying forward when allocable surplus exceeds maximum bonus payable:— Under sub-section (1) of section 36, where for any accounting year, the allocable surplus exceeds the amount of maximum bonus payable to the employees in the establishment under section 26, then, the excess shall, subject to a limit of twenty per cent. of the total salary or wage of the employees employed in the establishment in that accounting year, be carried forward for being set on in the succeeding accounting year and so on upto and inclusive of the fourth accounting year to be utilised for the purpose of payment of bonus in the manner as illustrated in Appendix A.

28. Manner of carrying forward when there is no allocable surplus for payment of minimum bonus:— Under sub-section (2) of section 36, where for any accounting year, there is no available surplus or the allocable surplus in respect of that year falls short of the amount of minimum bonus payable to the employees in the establishment under section 26 and there is no amount or sufficient amount carried forward and set on under rule 27 which shall be utilised for the purpose of payment of the minimum bonus, then, such minimum amount or the deficiency, as the case may be, shall be carried forward for being set off in the succeeding accounting year and so on upto and inclusive of the fourth accounting year in the manner as illustrated in Appendix A.

CHAPTER VII

PAYMENT OF DUES, CLAIMS, ETC.

45. Payment of undisbursed dues to nominees in case of death of employee :— (1) (a) In pursuance of clause (a) of sub-section (1) of section 44, every employee shall make a declaration in Form-VII in physical form or electronically, nominating a person conferring the right to receive the amount that may stand in the credit of the employee on the event of death, before that amount standing to the credit of such employee has become payable or where the amount has become payable, before payment has been made.

(b) If the employee has a family at the time of making nomination, the nomination shall be in favour of the spouse or the spouse in preference followed by one or more members of the family:

Provided that nomination made by an employee having a family in favour of a person other than member of the family shall be invalid:

Provided further that a fresh nomination towards the spouse of the employee shall be made by the employee on marriage and any nomination made before such marriage shall be deemed to be invalid.

(c) Where the nomination is wholly or partly in favour of a minor, the employee may appoint a major person of the family, to be the guardian of the minor nominee or where there is no major person in the family, the employee may by discretion, appoint any other person to be the guardian of the minor nominee.

(d) If the employee nominates more than one member, the nomination shall specify the amount or share payable to each of the nominees at employee's own discretion so as to cover the whole of the amount that may stand to the credit of the employee.

(2) Where any amount payable to an employee under the Code is due after the death or on account of whereabouts not being known of the employee and the amount could not be paid to the nominee of the employee until the expiry of three months from the date the amount had become payable, then, such amount shall be deposited by the employer with the Deputy Chief Labour Commissioner (Central) having jurisdiction, who shall disburse the amount to the person nominated by the employee after ascertaining the identity of the employee within two months of the date on which the amount was so deposited.

46. Deposit of undisbursed dues in case of death of employee:— (1) Where any amount payable to an employee under clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 44 remains undisbursed since no nomination has been made by such employee or for any other reason, such amounts could not be paid to the nominee of employee, all such amounts shall be deposited by the employer after the expiry of six-months from the date the amount become payable, with the Deputy Chief Labour Commissioner (Central) having jurisdiction before the expiry of the fifteenth day after the last day of the said period of six months.

(2) The amount to be deposited under sub-clause (1) shall be through bank transfer or through a crossed demand draft obtained from any scheduled bank in India drawn in favour of such Deputy Chief Labour Commissioner (Central).

47. Manner of dealing with deposit of undisbursed dues:— The undisbursed amount in sub rule (1) of rule 46 (hereinafter in this rule referred to as “the amount”) shall remain with the concerned Deputy Chief Labour Commissioner (Central) and be invested in the Central or State Government Securities or deposited as a fixed deposit in a scheduled bank.

(2) The concerned Deputy Chief Labour Commissioner (Central) shall exhibit, as soon as may be possible, a notice containing such particulars as the Deputy Chief Labour Commissioner (Central) considers sufficient for information at least for fifteen days on the notice board and also publish such notice in any two local newspapers of vernacular language commonly understood in the area in which undisbursed wages were earned and also in two local newspapers in vernacular language in the area of permanent residence of the employee.

(3) Subject to the provisions of sub-rule (4), the concerned Deputy Chief Labour Commissioner (Central) shall release the amount to the nominee or to that person who has claimed such amount, as the case may be, in whose favour such Deputy Chief Labour Commissioner (Central) has decided, after giving the opportunity of being heard.

(4) In case the undisbursed amount remains unclaimed for a period of seven years, the same shall be dealt as directed by the Central Government from time to time in this behalf.

CHAPTER VIII

FORMS, REGISTERS AND WAGE SLIP

48. Returns. - The returns shall be filed electronically by every employer of an establishment to which the Code applies in the Forms under the Occupational, Safety Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020 (37 of 2020).

49. Form and procedure for filing claims:— (1) A single application on behalf of or in respect of any number of or group of employees employed in the same establishment wherein their claims relate to the same wage period or any incident of discrimination, may be filed under sub-section (5) of section 45 in Form-II, manually or electronically along with documents specified in the said Form, before the authority notified by Central Government under sub-section (1) of section 45 to hear and determine claims which arise under the provisions of the Code.

(2) Where an application under sub-rule (1) is filed, the authority shall serve upon the employer electronically or by speed post, a notice in Form VIII to appear before them on the date specified in the notice with all relevant documents and witnesses, if any, and shall inform the applicant of the date so specified.

(3) In case where the employer or their representative fails to appear on the specified date, the authority may hear and determine the application ex-parte.

(4) In case where the applicant or their representative fails to appear on the specified date without any reasonable cause shown in advance, the authority may dismiss the application.

50. Procedure for filing appeal:—(1) Any person aggrieved by an order passed by the authority under sub-section (2) of section 45 may prefer an appeal under sub-section (1) of section 49 in Form-III electronically or by speed post, along with documents mentioned by the appellant in the said Form, to the appellate authority having jurisdiction:

Provided that no appeal by an employer shall be admitted unless at the time of preferring the appeal, the appellant has deposited the claim amount with the appellate authority.

(2) Where an appeal under sub-section (1) of section 49 is entertained, the appellate Authority shall serve upon the respondent electronically or by speed post, a notice in Form VIII to appear before them on the date specified in the notice and shall inform the appellant of the date so specified.

(3) In case where the employer or their representative fails to appear on the specified date, the authority may hear and determine the application ex-parte.

(4) In case where the applicant or their representative fails to appear on the specified date, the authority may dismiss the appeal.

51. Form of register, etc.- (1) The employer of all establishments to which the Code applies shall maintain under sub-section (1) of section 50, electronically or in physical form in the formats appended to these rules, the following registers:—

- (i) Employee Register in Form I;
- (ii) Register of Wages, Overtime, Advances, Fines and Deductions for Damage and Loss in Form IV; and
- (iii) Attendance Register-cum-Muster Roll in Form IX.

(2) All fines and all realisations referred to in sub-section (8) of section 19 shall be recorded in a register to be kept by the employer electronically or in physical form in Form - IV and the authority referred to in sub-section (8) shall be the Deputy Chief Labour Commissioner (Central) having jurisdiction.

(3) All deductions and realisations referred to in sub section (3) of section 21 shall be recorded in a register to be kept by the employer electronically or in physical form in Form IV.

(4) The registers maintained under these rules shall be preserved for a period of five years after the date of last entry made therein.

52. Wage slip. -Every employer shall issue wage slips, electronically or in physical form to the employees in Form V under sub-section (3) of section 50 on or before payment of wages.

53. Manner of holding enquiry:— (1) Where a complaint is filed before the officer appointed under sub-section (1) of section 53 (hereinafter in this rule referred to as “the officer”) in respect of the offences referred to in said sub-section, either by an officer authorised for such purpose by the Central Government or by an employee aggrieved or a registered trade union registered under the Industrial Relations Code, 2020 (35 of 2020) or an Inspector-cum-Facilitator, the officer after considering such evidence as produced by the complainant, is of the opinion that an offence has been committed, shall issue summons to the offender on the address specified in the complaint fixing a date for his appearance.

(2) If the offender to whom the summons has been issued under sub-rule (1) appears or is produced before the officer, the officer shall explain the offender the offence complained against and if the offender pleads guilty, the officer shall impose penalty in accordance with the provisions of the Code and if the offender does not plead guilty, the officer shall take evidence of the witnesses produced by the complainant on oath and provide opportunity of cross examination of the witnesses so produced.

(3) The officer shall record in writing the statement of the witnesses on oath and in cross examination and take the documentary evidence on record.

(4) The officer shall, after the complainant's evidence is complete, provide an opportunity of defence to the accused person and the witnesses produced by the accused shall be cross examined after their statements on oath by the complainant and documentary evidence in defence shall be taken on record by the officer.

(5) The officer shall after hearing the parties and considering the evidence both oral and documentary, decide the complaint in accordance with the provisions of the Code.

54. Manner of composition of offences:—(1) An accused person desirous of composition of offence under sub-section (1) of section 56 may make an application in Form VI electronically or manually to the Gazetted Officer notified under said sub-section.

(2) The Gazetted Officer referred to in sub-rule (1) shall on receipt of such application, satisfy as to whether the offence is compoundable or not under the Code and, if the offence is compoundable and the accused person agrees for the composition, compound the offence for a sum of fifty per cent of the maximum fine provided for such offence under the Code, to be paid by the accused within thirty days of the order of composition issued by such officer.

(3) The compounding officer shall issue a composition certificate in Part-B of Form-VI within ten days of receipt of the composition amount, to such person from whom such amount has been received in compliance of the composition notice.

(4) In case where a person so noticed fails to deposit the composition amount within the time specified by the compounding officer, prosecution shall be instituted before the competent court against such person for such offence in respect of which the compounding notice was issued.

(5) Where the offence has been compounded under sub-rule (2) after the institution of the prosecution, the officer shall send a copy of such order for intimation to the officer referred to in sub-section (1) of section 53 for action under sub-section (6) of section 56.
